PRESIDENT’S FOREWORD

On behalf of the Council of Trustees of the National Gallery of Victoria, it gives me great pleasure to present the Gallery’s 2020/21 Annual Report.

2020/21 was characterised by the necessity for flexibility and adaptability as the Gallery responded to the evolving COVID-19 pandemic, which resulted in a series of closures and reopenings in line with public health advice. Throughout this period, the focus of the organisation was on the safety and wellbeing of our visitors and staff and ensuring that when we were able to open to the public, we did so with full regard to COVIDSafe requirements. The Victorian Government has played a crucial role in facilitating the continuation of the NGV’s operations and we sincerely thank the Victorian Government for its extensive support provided during this time.

The NGV adapted to the changing situation with innovation and drive. Throughout the Gallery’s closure to the public from early July to late 2020, the NGV reinvented its programming and offerings. During this time, the Gallery continued to meaningfully engage with our community and encourage social connection. Digital offerings connected audiences in new ways, demonstrating the NGV’s ability to serve the community and strive for excellence under challenging circumstances. In line with the Victorian Government’s roadmap to reopening, NGV Australia reopened to the public on 23 November 2020, while NGV International reopened on 19 December 2020.

It was pleasing to welcome the public back to the NGV, and to once again connect and engage with our community through a combination of in-person and online programming. The NGV’s reopening also supported strategies to encourage domestic tourism while our borders are closed to international tourists. This involved working closely with Tourism Australia, Visit Victoria and the City of Melbourne on campaigns to rebuild audiences following the impact of COVID-19.

The NGV’s Strategic Direction 2020–23 informed the year’s activities, including exhibitions and programs that attracted more than 770,000 visitors. The Gallery’s diverse offerings provided engaging physical and virtual experiences, giving our audiences opportunities to experience the best of Australian and international art and design. Highlights from the year included the 2020 NGV Triennial, a celebration of contemporary international art and design, and the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces exhibition French Impressionism from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Australian programming included She-Oak and Sunlight: Australian Impressionism, DESTINY, TIWI and Maree Clarke: Ancestral Memories.

Detailed planning for the delivery of NGV Contemporary has continued. This year saw an exciting milestone reached with the Victorian Government announcement of $1.46 billion to fund Phase One of the Melbourne Arts Precinct Transformation, including construction of the new gallery. This year also saw the commencement of the NGV Contemporary Design Competition to select an Australian team to lead the design of this landmark new facility.

The NGV Collection and programs continue to develop thanks to our generous philanthropic community. I thank the Gallery’s donors who, with their generous gifts, have grown the NGV’s holdings and supported specific projects. This period saw many meaningful donations made, and a full list of our 2020/21 donors can be found on pages 132–139. I want to sincerely thank the community for its support and dedication, even throughout a time of uncertainty. For this, the NGV is very grateful.

The continued success of the NGV is also due to the outstanding support received from our many friends, volunteers, Members and partners. I acknowledge and express thanks for the support of the NGVWA, chaired by Maria Smith, and the NGV Voluntary Guides, chaired by Brian Martin OAM. I also recognise the support of the NGV Business Council and thank previous chairs Gerard Dalbosco and Horst von Sanden for their service, and warmly welcome Tim Joyce.

The Felton Bequest and its legacy remains a significant influence on the development of the NGV Collection. I wish to thank the Felton Bequests’ Committee, chaired by Sir Andrew Grimwade CBE, for its ongoing support.

The NGV is grateful to the numerous sponsors and corporate partners who have provided support throughout this challenging period. The partnerships the NGV has with the corporate sector, education and tertiary institutions, and media and tourism providers have allowed us to continue to deliver an engaging program.

The NGV’s activities could not be achieved without the generous support of the Victorian Government. On behalf of the entire Council of Trustees and the NGV’s Executive Management Team, I sincerely thank the Premier the Hon. Daniel Andrews MP; the Deputy Premier the Hon. James Merlino; the previous Minister for Creative Industries, the Hon. Martin Foley MP; and the Minister for Creative Industries, the Hon. Danny Pearson MP. We also warmly thank Simon Phemister, Secretary to the Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions; and Andrew Abbott, Deputy Secretary, Creative, Sport and Visitor Economy.

I also express my thanks to my fellow Trustees, Professor Su Baker AM, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM, Leigh Clifford AO, Didier Elzinga, Lisa Gay, Sarah Lowe, Corbett Lyon, Rachael Neumann and Andrew Penn. I wish to especially acknowledge Corbett Lyon, who retired from the Council of Trustees in May 2021, for his dedicated commitment and service. Corbett’s knowledge and skills have been invaluable, and we are grateful to have his ongoing contribution to the NGV in his role as Emeritus Trustee.

The various Council committees of the NGV also contribute in significant ways. I would like to thank the external members who volunteered their time and expertise during the year: Caroline Coops and Bronwyn Ross on the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee; Chris Pidcock and Andrew Sisson AO on the Investment Committee; and Louise Tegart and Eric Nash on the Victorian Foundation for Living Australian Artists (VFLAA) Committee.

With appreciation, I acknowledge the NGV Foundation Board’s Chair Leigh Clifford AO and board members who served during the year: President Hugh Morgan AC, Neville Bertalli, Norman Bloom, Paul Bonnici, Geraldine Buxton, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM, Philip Cornish AM, Peter Edwards, Paula Fox AO, Morry Fraid AM, John Higgins AO, Joanna Horgan, Craig Kimberley OAM, Michael Tong, Michael Ullmer AO, Neil Young QC, along with Bill Bowness AO and Sarah Morgan, who both retired from the Foundation Board in May.

On behalf of the Council of Trustees I congratulate the Director, Tony Ellwood AM, the executive team, and all NGV staff for their unwavering commitment to the NGV.

DIRECTOR’S REVIEW

As we reflect on 2020/21, I am proud of the quality of exhibitions, displays, programs, acquisitions and research undertaken and delivered by the NGV, with the help of our supporters and partners.

We started the year with a continued focus on #NGVEveryDay, a creative response to the COVID-19 pandemic, which allowed us to foster and maintain connections with our audiences through an uncertain year of temporary closures and reopenings. These connections have proved vital in ensuring the wellbeing of our community, stakeholders and colleagues through these challenging times. The NGV’s social media became a source of free online events for young people and adults, virtual tours and collaborations, as well as educational resources. Key insights about the NGV Collection were posted regularly, increasing the information audiences have about our diverse and ever-growing offerings. Our curators, conservators and public programs staff reached out to local and international artists to conduct a variety of in-conversation events, further encouraging community connection and interaction. These successful initiatives paved the way for the Gallery to communicate with audiences in new ways, and I was humbled by the overwhelmingly positive response from our community. I thank all staff for their dedicated involvement to the digital, online and social media presence of the NGV, ensuring we stayed connected even when we were apart.

After a period of temporary closure, we were pleased that The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia could successfully reopen in November. This reopening launched the summer season exhibitions DESTINY, TIWI and Ivan Durrant: Barrier Draw. DESTINY, Australian artist Destiny Deacon’s largest solo show to date, shared her politically charged and thought-provoking worldview with audiences. The art and culture of the Tiwi people of Melville and Bathurst Islands were celebrated in the TIWI exhibition, showcased through 153 works focusing on Tiwi culture, spanning from 1911 to now. Ivan Durrant: Barrier Draw presented a diverse range of paintings, short films and sculptures spanning many decades of dedicated practice.

In December, NGV International reopened with the 2020 NGV Triennial, which received over 500,000 visitors during the course of the exhibition. The Triennial EXTRA festival was also held, which attracted more than 46,000 visitors from January to February. This festival provided performance, music and food, and closing week programs included weekend Triennial Stage performances and Triennial Conversations between NGV curators and exhibiting artists. We are thankful for the support we received from the Victorian Government, private donors and philanthropic groups for the NGV Triennial and its associated programs.

With audiences able to visit the Gallery again, a key focus was the resumption of our physical programming and presentation of our Collection and exhibitions. I am grateful to our staff for their agility and creativity through our period of closures and reopenings, and for responding seamlessly to the year’s changes. I also thank the Victorian Government for its support and guidance through this time, which enabled us to achieve this outcome for our community.

In January, workshops and events especially for kids and teens were held in-person at NGV International and online for the seventh NGV Kids Summer Festival, under the theme ‘art is for everyone’. NGV Kids on Tour also kicked off across ninety-nine venues offering children and families throughout regional and metropolitan Victoria the opportunity to engage with art. More than 9000 participants joined the NGV Kids on Tour program. When COVID-19 necessitated a five-day lockdown in February resulting in a temporary closure, the NGV continued to engage virtually. In the lead up to Lunar New Year in February, we engaged our local Chinese community through various platforms, including social media. Activities for kids were also shared online in English and Chinese for families to enjoy from home during the NGV’s brief closure.

At NGV International, March kicked off Melbourne Design Week, the largest international design event in Australia. In partnership with the Victorian Government, national and international designers were hosted to present a series of talks, tours, workshops and launches with the overarching theme ‘Design the world you want’. This event included the Melbourne Art Book Fair, the seventh edition to bring together publishers, artists and designers to showcase some of the world’s best art and design publications. At the end of March, NGV Australia presented the opening of Top Arts 2021. The exhibited works selected were from students across Victoria who had completed Art or Studio Arts in 2020 as part of their Victorian Certificate of Education.

Australian and international artists and designers, and NGV Collection displays, were showcased in over twenty-seven exhibitions across the NGV’s two sites over the course of the year. A temporary reclosure of the Gallery running through to the middle of June resulted in a short postponement of the NGV’s seventeenth Melbourne Winter Masterpieces exhibition. Nevertheless, the highly anticipated Melbourne Winter Masterpieces: French Impressionism from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, was able to successfully open only a few weeks later than planned. This exhibition of works by renowned French Impressionist artists included seventy-nine works exhibited in Australia for the first time, highlighted key milestones, and figures of the late-nineteenth century artistic movement, including Claude Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Edgar Degas, Camille Pissarro and Mary Cassatt.

The NGV has acquired various works of art to further develop the Collection. We thank the philanthropic community for the generous support we received in 2020/21, which enabled the Collection’s growth, including gifts of works of art and through donations of funds. A full listing of works acquired during the period can be found on pages 38–57.

Many specific projects received significant support from private donors and from our valued corporate partners. We appreciate all those who uphold our vision of providing high-quality experiences for visitors of all ages and backgrounds. Through the dedication and advocacy of our partners, benefactors, volunteers, Members and friends, the NGV has had the capacity to offer an extraordinary suite of programs and exhibitions this year. For this, I thank everyone who has contributed to our achievements. In a challenging year, we extend a special thank you to our Principal Partners Mercedes-Benz, Macquarie Group and Telstra, and new Premium Partner HSBC.

I wish to acknowledge the important contribution made by the Council of Trustees, led by President Janet Whiting AM. I thank Corbett Lyon, who retired from the Council this year, for his dedicated commitment and service to the NGV, and I also thank the external members of our Council committees and working groups for their expert guidance and advocacy throughout the year.

I express thanks to my executive colleagues Andrew Clark, Deputy Director; Don Heron, Assistant Director, Exhibitions Management and Design; Donna McColm, Assistant Director, Curatorial and Audience Engagement; Jane Zantuck, Assistant Director, Marketing and Corporate Partnerships; and Misha Agzarian, Assistant Director, Fundraising and Events; and all of the NGV staff for the exceptional service they provide to the Gallery.

I thank the Victorian Government for its leadership and support, particularly the Premier the Hon. Daniel Andrews MP; the Deputy Premier the Hon. James Merlino; the previous Minister for Creative Industries, the Hon. Martin Foley MP; and the Minister for Creative Industries, the Hon. Danny Pearson MP. I also thank Simon Phemister, Secretary to the Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions; Andrew Abbott, Deputy Secretary, Creative, Sport and Visitor Economy; and their respective staff, for their advocacy and support.

Lastly, my deepest thanks extends to all NGV staff for their remarkable ability to continuously excel in serving our community, through challenging circumstances.

2020/21 PERFORMANCE REPORT

BRINGING ART AND DESIGN TO LIFE

ACQUISITION HIGHLIGHTS

In 2020/21 the NGV Collection continued to be guided by the Collections Strategy 2020–23. The NGV Collections Strategy provides strategic directions for building the National Gallery of Victoria's permanent collection.

Building the NGV Collection of international contemporary art and design was an ongoing strategic priority during this period, with new major acquisitive commissions presented for display in the NGV Triennial. Jeff Koons's Venus 2016–20, one of the most significant works of contemporary art to enter the NGV Collection, was commissioned and acquired with the generous support of the Loti & Victor Smorgon Fund, Leigh Clifford AO & Sue Clifford, John Higgins AO & Jodie Maunder, and Paula Fox AO & Fox Family Foundation. The acquisition of Refik Anadol's ambitious new media work Quantum memories, 2020, was supported by the Loti and Victor Smorgon Fund, and Barry Janes and Paul Cross. Cerith Wyn Evans's monumental light-based sculpture C=O=D=A, 2019, was generously offered as a gift from the Felton Bequest. With the support of the NGVWA, German artist Alicja Kwade's WeltenLinie, 2020, joined the NGV Collection; and Hannah Brontë's video work EYE HEAR U MAGIK, 2020, was acquired with the support of Vicky Vidor and Peter Avery. Tabor Robak's Megafauna, 2020, entered the Collection, with the support of Barry Janes and Paul Cross; and Botanical pavilion, 2020, a collaboration between Japanese architect Kengo Kuma and Australian artist Geoff Nees, was supported by Connie and Craig Kimberley.

Works acquired into the Collection that were also presented in the NGV Triennial included To die upon a kiss, 2011, by American artist Fred Wilson, supported by the Professor AGL Shaw AO Bequest; Diamond Stingily's installation In the middle but in the corner of 176th place, 2019, and Cecilie Bendixen's Cloud formations, 2020, with the support of the Neilson Foundation.

In 2020/21, a cross-departmental focus on early to mid twentieth-century art and design yielded significant acquisitions, including works on paper by Wassily Kandinsky, László Moholy-Nagy and Robert Delaunay. The Gallery welcomed works by early twentieth-century women photographers Germaine Krull, Dora Maar and Florence Henri, supported by the Bowness Family Fund for Photography and Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family. Nine ceramic works by Pablo Picasso dating from 1952 to 1959 were purchased with funds donated by John and Cecily Adams, adding to this collection's strength. Furniture works by Kem Weber were purchased via the Nigel and Patricia Peck Fund; and works by George Nakashima, Alvar Aalto and Isamu Noguchi, supported by the Norma Atwell Bequest, Margaret Ditchburn Bequest and Ursula Jacobs Bequest respectively, enriched the Gallery's holdings of twentieth-century design icons. The Gallery's holdings of Art Nouveau design were substantially strengthened with a major gift of Sèvres Porcelain: Agathon Léonard's The Scarf Dance (Jeu de l'écharpe), table centrepiece, modelled 1898, offered by Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family.

The Gallery's holdings of mid twentieth-century Australian art was enriched with a major gift offered by Michael Machin of eight works that were presented at the groundbreaking 1968 NGV exhibition The Field. Joy Hester's Pauline McCarthy, 1945, is the first painting by this important artist to enter the Collection, and was supported by the June Sherwood Bequest.

A number of diverse contemporary acquisitions were made possible through the Victorian Foundation for Living Australian Artists (VFLAA), including Nam Nog (Turtle mask), 2020; Stolen climate, 2020; and Weris Kop Lemar 2020, by Torres Strait artists Toby Cedar, Clinton Naina and Obery Sambo, respectively. Also acquired through the VFLAA were David Noonan's large-scale tapestry Untitled, 2019, and a major suite of works by Destiny Deacon.

The Gallery's growing collection of art from Korea was enriched with the major acquisition of an eighteenth-century Moon jar, the first of these important design objects to enter an Australian public collection. Significant historical Japanese works acquired this year include S. Baillieu Myer AC and Sarah Myer's gift of a lacquer Noh libretto box, eighteenth- to nineteenth-century, and works by influential twentieth-century designers: Yanagi Sori's Butterfly stool, c. 1954, Ubunji Kikokoro's Armchair, c. 1937, and Shiro Kuramata's How high the moon, 1987, all supported by the Ruth Margaret Frances Houghton Bequest and NGV Supporters of Asian Art. A number of works were acquired by Indian vernacular artists that engage with themes of women's social issues and the COVID-19 pandemic, reflecting the Gallery's commitment to collecting works that respond to social issues of the day.

Important works by Indigenous artists acquired this year include a major installation by important Iarrakitj artist Nonggirnga Marawili titled Djapu, 2020, brought into the Collection with the support of donations from a public campaign. Works dating from the 1990s and early 2000s by Karen Casey, Yulyurlu Lorna Napurrurla Fencer and Taracarijimo Freda Warlapinni, entered the Collection as gifts from Nellie Castan, Anthony Knight OAM and Beverly Knight, and Gabriella Roy, respectively.

The Gallery's holdings of historical textiles were enriched by a rare Queen Anne bedcover, offered by Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family. Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family also supported the acquisition of twelve works by Alexander McQueen, building on the Gallery's strong holdings of twentieth-and twenty-first-century fashion. This collecting area was also enriched with nine works by Comme des Garçons, gifted by Takamasa Takahashi; and Evening dress from Christian Dior's significant 1958 Rose Rouge collection, supported by the David Richards Estate.

The Gallery's collection of art and design of the 1970s to 1990s – a new collecting priority – was enhanced with the acquisition of Jenny Holzer's Untitled, LED work from the 1985 Truisms series and set of Truisms prints, 1977–79, supported by the NGV Supporters of Contemporary Art and the Ruth Margaret Frances Houghton Bequest respectively. Works by important realist artist Richard Estes entered the Collection with a suite of eight colour screenprints, supported by public donations. This collecting area was also enriched with an early sculpture by Japanese artist Harumi Nakashima, Tombstone, 1973, and Gretchen Bender's Untitled, 1982, both supported by the Ruth Margaret Frances Houghton Bequest.

EXHIBITIONS AND DISPLAYS

In 2020/21, the NGV presented an extensive and compelling range of exhibitions, displays and public programs to engage a diverse audience. Twenty-seven exhibitions were held across NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. Additionally, the celebrated NGV Collection work Shearing the rams, 1890, by Tom Roberts was exhibited at Wangaratta Art Gallery; and Petrina Hicks: Bleached Gothic (Gothique Blanc) toured to the Australian Embassy in Paris. A selection of exhibition highlights from the year are as follows:

Japanese Design: Neolithic to Now

This exhibition, drawn from the NGV Collection, explored the unique artistic traditions and sophisticated visual design from Japan, bringing together works that express a human desire to create a close spiritual affiliation with nature. Spanning more than four thousand years, from Neolithic times to now, the exhibition celebrated the wabi-sabi aesthetic of rustic earthenware ceramics, and encompassed Buddhist sculpture and calligraphy, minimalist medieval furniture, the appreciation of seasonal flowers, the refined motifs of porcelain ware, bamboo weaving to create contemporary sculptural forms, and the work of some of Japan's leading contemporary fashion and graphic designers.

NGV Triennial 2020

The 2020 NGV Triennial offered a visually arresting and thought-provoking view of the world through a dynamic display of contemporary art, design and architecture, exhibited throughout NGV International. The exhibition crossed cultures, disciplines and traditional divides, showcasing the work of more than 100 significant practitioners from across the globe and exploring important issues that are affecting humanity today. Demonstrating the extraordinary intersection between contemporary art and design disciplines, the 2020 NGV Triennial made an important contribution to international discourse and collaboration, while reinforcing a connection between Melbourne and the broader global community.

Spectrum: An Exploration of Colour

Presented in conjunction with the 2020 NGV Triennial, Spectrum was an exploration of colour through the NGV Collection, taking the sparkling cut-glass ceiling of the Great Hall as the inspiration for the colour palette. Drawn from across the Collection from antiquity to the present, the exhibition presented a broad selection of works in a range of media, which investigated the history and artistic use of twelve different colours. Each of the exhibition's display cases explored a single colour, illustrating its history – from the colour's origins and trade, to its manufacture and symbolism across time and culture. The exhibition design was conceived by Melbourne-based designer Danielle Brustman.

Melbourne Design Week and Melbourne Art Book Fair 2021

Presented over eleven days, the 2021 iteration of Melbourne Design Week explored the theme 'design the world you want' where emerging and established designers demonstrated how they can collaborate to create a better and healthier future for the planet. In an array of talks, tours, workshops, exhibitions and launches across Melbourne and Victoria, Melbourne Design Week celebrated the diversity of the Australian design and architectural sector offering both industry professionals and design enthusiasts the opportunity to engage with individuals, institutions and practices at the vanguard of design worldwide. The design festival was complemented by the specially curated program Melbourne Art Book Fair, which brought together publishers, artists and designers to showcase some of the world's best art and design publications over three days of events at the NGV, across Melbourne and regional Victoria, and online.

Melbourne Winter Masterpieces 2021

French Impressionism from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston

In partnership with the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (MFA), the NGV presented a major exhibition of more than 100 masterworks of French Impressionism from MFA's world-renowned collection. In an international exclusive, the important loans displayed from MFA's rich holdings provided a rare opportunity for audiences to see a significant grouping of Impressionist masterpieces in Australia. Featured works included those by Claude Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Edgar Degas, Camille Pissarro, Mary Cassatt and more – inclusive of more than seventy works that have never before been exhibited in Australia – in a breathtaking display of paintings and works on paper. The exhibition attracted a diverse local, regional and interstate audience.

Goya: Drawings from the Prado Museum

The world-exclusive exhibition Goya: Drawings from the Prado Museum featured more than 160 works on paper by Francisco Goya (1746–1828), celebrating the artist's extraordinary draughtsmanship and his unique insight into the complexities of human nature. The exhibition was the first major presentation of Goya's work at the NGV in more than twenty years and featured more than forty drawings on loan from the Prado Museum in Madrid – the largest group of Goya's drawings ever seen in Australia. The works from the Prado collection were complemented by more than 120 etchings from Goya's renowned print series. The rich and diverse selection of drawings highlighted the breadth of Goya's drawing practice and offered a rare insight into the artist's image-making process.

Plans for the Planet: Olaf Breuning for Kids

Plans for the Planet: Olaf Breuning for Kids presented a large-scale participatory exhibition for children that played to young people's universal love of adventure and theme parks, while referencing Olaf Breuning's thoughts about life. Drawing from popular culture and inspired by the artist's enjoyment of video games and movies from his youth, the exhibition was both an adventure of self-discovery and an opportunity for children to share their thoughts about the world they live in. Breuning's drawings featured in the exhibition design and were as well translated into multimedia-based animations and interactive themes.

DESTINY

In the largest retrospective of Destiny Deacon's work to date, DESTINY marked the first solo show of the acclaimed contemporary artist in more than fifteen years. Featuring more than 100 multidisciplinary works made over a period of thirty years, the exhibition included the premiere of newly commissioned works, as well as numerous early video works created with the late Wiradjuri/Kamilaroi photographer Michael Riley and West Australian performance artist Erin Hefferon. Deacon is internationally known for a body of work depicting her darkly comic, idiosyncratic world view. Offering a nuanced, thoughtful and, at times, intensely funny snapshot of contemporary Australian life, DESTINY reminded audiences that 'serious' art can also have a sense of humour.

She-Oak and Sunlight: Australian Impressionism

She-Oak and Sunlight: Australian Impressionism was a large-scale exhibition of more than 250 artworks drawn from major public and private collections from around Australia, including the NGV Collection. Featuring some of the most widely recognisable and celebrated works by Tom Roberts, Frederick McCubbin, Jane Sutherland, Arthur Streeton, Charles Conder, Clara Southern, John Russell and E. Phillips Fox, the exhibition also brought to light lesser-known paintings by Iso Rae, May Vale, Jane Price and Ina Gregory. She-Oak and Sunlight presented these works in new and surprising contexts, exploring the impact of personal relationships, international influences and the importance of place on the trajectory of the movement. The exhibition was guest curated by Dr Anne Gray AM with the NGV Australian Art department.

Ivan Durrant: Barrier Draw

Described as the enfant terrible of Australian art, Ivan Durrant is a leading exponent of photorealist painting as well as a sculptor, filmmaker, performance artist and writer with a career spanning close to five decades. Ivan Durrant: Barrier Draw traced the evolution of Durrant's extraordinarily diverse artistic career and his remarkable body of work. It included his earliest folk paintings, made in response to his childhood experiences of country life; his realist paintings, short films and sculptures of the 1970s and 1980s; his controversial and politically motivated performance works; and his evocative soft-focus shed, football and racing paintings of the 1990s and 2000s. In addition to existing works, Durrant produced a new larger-than-life sculpture, The slaughtered cow, 2019, which astonished visitors to the exhibition.

TIWI

TIWI celebrated the unique art and culture of the Tiwi people of Melville and Bathurst Islands, exploring the dynamic trajectory of Tiwi art across time and media, from 1911 to now. Comprising more than 150 works from the NGV Collection, 130 loans of rare historical objects, and contemporary works drawn from Australian public and private collections, TIWI was the largest exhibition of Tiwi art that has ever been presented. The exhibition highlighted the work of great Tiwi historical and contemporary artists and celebrated it as art, not ethnographic artefact.

Camille Henrot: Is Today Tomorrow

This exhibition featured key works created over the past decade from Camille Henrot, one of the most compelling contemporary artists working today. The exhibition included a group of new works on paper that had never before been exhibited. Also featured was the first Australian presentation of the immersive room-scale installation The Pale Fox, 2014, a companion piece to the widely exhibited Grosse Fatigue, 2013, for which Henrot was awarded the Silver Lion at the 55th Venice Biennale for most promising young artist. The Pale Fox attempts to explain the origins of the universe, drawing from research she undertook during a fellowship at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington DC in 2013. Camille Henrot: Is Today Tomorrow was Henrot's first major survey exhibition in Australia.

Maree Clarke: Ancestral Memories

Maree Clarke: Ancestral Memories was the first major retrospective of Melbourne-based artist and designer, Maree Clarke, who is a Yorta Yorta/Wamba Wamba/Mutti Mutti/Boonwurrung woman. Clarke is a pivotal figure in the reclamation of south-east Australian Aboriginal art and cultural practices and has a passion for reviving elements of Aboriginal culture that were lost – or lay dormant – as a consequence of colonisation. Covering more than three decades of artistic output, the exhibition traversed Clarke's multidisciplinary practice across photography, printmaking, sculpture, jewellery, video, glass and more. Reflecting Clarke's continuing desire to affirm and reconnect with her cultural heritage, the exhibition displayed her artworks alongside key historical loans from Museums Victoria, which highlighted her deep engagement with and reverence for the customary ceremonies, rituals, objects and language of her ancestors.

RESEARCH AND CONSERVATION

The NGV Conservation department prepares and cares for Collection and loan works for displays and exhibitions, and strategically evaluates display and storage environments. In tandem with this, the department undertakes scientific and art historical research to offer unique insights into the understanding of works of art and the conservation practice, as well as publicly disseminating this information through NGV-led and industry forums.

During 2020/21, the Conservation department provided condition assessments for all borrowed works and outgoing loans, and each new acquisition submission. At 30 June 2021, more than 20,000 works of art (accessioned and approved by the NGV Council of Trustees Status) have a Condition Keyword, which is an increase of almost a quarter when compared to the 2019/20 period.

The department treated several major new acquisitions, including the Yves Saint Laurent's Evening ensemble (Sunflowers jacket and skirt), 1988; an English Bedcover, 1710, originally from the collection of Queen Anne (1665–1714); The Scarf Dance figure group, by Sèvres Porcelain Factory; and Frank Lloyd Wright's Window from the Avery Coonley House, Riverside, Illinois, 1906–1908. All Conservation staff were involved in the planning and preparation of works for the 2020 NGV Triennial, and also supported the Exhibitions and Collections Operations teams in the installation of the exhibition. Furthermore, the department contributed to the maintenance, deinstallation and long-term storage and packing of these artworks.

The department made significant contributions to temporary exhibitions as well as regular permanent collection changeovers, which involved preparing works of art, including the production of mounts, textile and bespoke object display mechanisms, and also continued to contribute to major outward loans.

During the period, the Exhibition Conservation team prepared, installed and deinstalled several major exhibitions. This included the return of all international loans from the exhibition Keith Haring | Jean-Michel Basquiat: Crossing Lines, which concluded in 2020, and the preparation and installation of the exhibitions TIWI, She-Oak and Sunlight: Australian Impressionism, and the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces 2021: French Impressionism from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. The exhibition program also involved Conservation staff creating and fabricating works according to artists' specifications.

Throughout 2020/21, the Conservation department has built on their capacity for monitoring and reporting as well as for providing advice and support in managing environmental conditions for outgoing loans, including custom microclimate cases, dehumidifiers and data loggers. Sophisticated environmental loggers were installed and surveyed during the transport and exhibition of loans to the Australian Centre for Contemporary Art, Wangaratta Art Gallery and the Institute of Modern Art in Brisbane.

The department researched the NGV's museum environment as part of the migration to the Bizot Green Protocols in the permanent collection displays at NGV International. A collaborative research program was established with scientists from the Getty Conservation Institute, which enables evidence-based analysis of collection care and energy management in a museum context.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, there were fewer physical courier trips due to travel restrictions; however, painting conservators did accompany crates of paintings from Sydney to Melbourne for the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces exhibition French Impressionism from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston in April 2021.

Treatment was completed on significant paintings in the Collection, including Arthur Streeton's The purple noon's transparent might, 1896; Tom Roberts's The artists' camp, 1886; Thomas Clark's The Upper Falls on the Wannon, 1867; Louis-Ferdinand Elle's Portrait of Henrietta of England called 'Minette' (1644–1670), sister of Charles II, c.1661; and Tony Tuckson's Blue upright, 1965.

Through the NGV Centre for Frame Research, reproduction frames were completed for Arthur Streeton's The lovers' walk, 1889, and Spring, 1890; and for Tom Roberts's The artists' camp, 1886, and She-oak and sunlight, 1889, which were all displayed in the exhibition She-Oak and Sunlight: Australian Impressionism. Historically accurate frames were completed for Thomas Clark's The Upper Falls on the Wannon, 1867, and Jacob Huysmans's Edward Henry Lee, 1st Earl of Litchfield, and his wife Charlotte Fitzroy as children, 1674.

During 2020/21, two Japanese scrolls – Tales of Shinran (Shinran Shonin no engi – The History of Matsuwakagimi), seventeenth-century, and Sasaki Sengen's Hannya the demon, 1865 – from the NGV Collection were returned to the Gallery after a period of four years following their travel to Japan for restoration by the Cooperative Program for the Conservation of Japanese Art Objects Overseas. This program, implemented by the Japanese Government, aims to preserve Japan's most culturally significant artworks and artefacts that reside in foreign countries. The restoration treatments significantly enhanced the beauty of the scroll works, ensuring they will be enjoyed for centuries to come.

Notable research projects included a study into Spanish papermaking and printmaking ahead of the exhibition Goya: Drawings from the Prado Museum, to better understand inherent characteristics in the papers used for Goya's prints and his printmaking techniques. In addition, important progress was made on the treatment of two crewelwork hangings, c. 1690–1710, donated by the Murdoch Foundation. These treatments uncovered significant information, which assisted conservators in determining the curtains' dates and origins.

Research was also undertaken for the remote and virtual condition reporting of works, in the absence of physical courier travel. This research saw the successful implementation of a new system of virtual reporting for the exhibition Goya: Drawings from the Prado Museum, which was the first group of major inward loans to be received with condition reporting conducted via live streaming, in correspondence with the Prado Museum in Madrid.

Conservation working groups developed and reviewed international best practice procedures and documentation across several areas, including preventive collection management, operational and technical procedures, artist questionnaires and contemporary art.

AUDIENCE ENGAGEMENT PUBLISHING

NGV Magazine, published bimonthly, enables audiences to engage deeply with works in the NGV Collection and exhibitions through essays, interviews, focuses on new acquisitions and other editorial features. Each of the six issues was also published online, featuring online-only audio, video, image galleries and reading. NGV Magazine profiled the NGV Collection in-depth throughout the year, highlighting new acquisitions and displays through new essays by NGV authors and leading writers, academics and specialists. In collaboration with the public programs team, numerous magazine articles were developed into public programs; for example, virtual events on Elizabeth Keith, Françoise Gilot and Dora Maar; etchings by Rembrandt; and Albrecht Dürer and the study of watermarks. During periods of lockdown in Melbourne, the NGV Magazine and Marketing teams collaborated to share previously published essays and digital content with audiences via NGV Channel and social media platforms. Many of NGV's public programs, including the new Adult Learning programs delivered online centred on the NGV Collection with live presentations and conversations by NGV curators and conservators.

VICTORIAN FOUNDATION FOR LIVING AUSTRALIAN ARTISTS

The Victorian Foundation for Living Australian Artists (VFLAA) was established in 2002 with a grant of five million dollars from the State Government of Victoria, matched by an equal contribution from the NGV’s Council of Trustees. The VFLAA has the following objectives:

- Increase support for living Australian artists by purchasing and exhibiting Australian art, with an emphasis on contemporary Australian visual art.
- Enable public galleries throughout Victoria to exhibit high-quality examples of contemporary Australian visual art.
- Expand the NGV’s purchasing capacity for contemporary Australian visual art and enhance the State Collection’s holdings of such work.
- Grow the VFLAA Fund in real terms over time.

The VFLAA Committee convened three times during the financial year: in August 2020, December 2020 and April 2021. In 2020/21 the VFLAA acquired a total of 121 works across a range of disciplines. The NGV thanks the regional representative on the VFLAA Committee: Louise Tegart, Director, Art Gallery of Ballarat and Eric Nash, Director, Benalla Art Gallery.

CONNECTING AUDIENCES

AUDIENCE ENGAGEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Highlighting the NGV Collection as a conduit for learning, community and wellbeing, a range of engagements were developed throughout 2020/21. The NGV launched online Adult Learning short courses, including Surrealism: 1920s to Now, The Art of Writing, Women in Art and Design, Colour, and Art and Agency. Virtual programs also included the New to the NGV series focusing on new acquisitions, presented in collaboration with the Australian National Academy of Music; an exploration of the Australian art collection; and virtual talks with artists and designers, featured in the NGV Triennial. During NAIDOC Week 2020, virtual talks and presentations explored the exhibition TIWI and provided the opportunity for Indigenous curators in Melbourne to discuss their work, in the program Curating with Community.

The NGV Triennial opened in December 2020 with a range of digital programs featuring participating artists and designers. In January and February 2021, the NGV Triennial EXTRA festival was presented throughout the summer nights, with audiences enjoying performances, live music and DJ sets, and commissioned dance performances. The NGV Friday Nights series, as part of the Melbourne Winter Masterpieces 2021 exhibition French Impressionism from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, supported a line-up of local musicians and DJs.

During 2020/21 the NGV supported both teachers and students in the classroom and through periods of remote learning by way of live interactive virtual excursions for schools, and professional learning for teachers, led by NGV Educators. New online learning resources supported teachers and embedded NGV content into teaching and learning. Additional initiatives included NGV Teens Industry Connections, an online series connecting teenagers with artists and leaders in the creative industries, and online art-making for younger and adult audiences, led by Australian artists.

We Change the World

In May 2021 the NGV Collection exhibition We Change the World opened at The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia, bringing together recent Australian and international art and design, including major works by Ai Weiwei, Julian Opie, David Hockney and Guerrilla Girls, alongside works new to the Collection or on display for the first time. Exploring the relationship between art, design and change, the exhibition was co-curated by members of the Audience Engagement and Learning, Contemporary Architecture and Design, Indigenous Art and Contemporary Art curatorial teams in a model that applied the NGV’s enquiry-led approach to learning to a broader curatorial and audience engagement framework. As well as schools, the exhibition sought to engage audiences of all ages through research, questions and rich interpretive material, including an interactive survey and virtual exhibition hub with videos featuring artists, students, NGV Teens, NGV Educators and curators reflecting on change; essays relating to exhibition artists and designers; an interactive survey; and related learning resources, programs and virtual tours.

NGV Triennial with 7am

Produced in a new collaboration with Schwartz Media’s daily news podcast 7am and hosted by Erik Jensen, founding editor of The Saturday Paper and editor-in-chief of Schwartz Media, NGV Triennial with 7am was a three-part podcast that explored key ideas, themes and works across each level of NGV Triennial. The podcast included interviews with curators, designers and artists such as Alicja Kwade and Hannah Brontë, as well as with leading writers from the exhibition publication, including Badger Bates. The podcast was distributed via the NGV website, Apple Podcasts, Spotify and SoundCloud.

NGV Magazine

NGV Magazine, published bimonthly, enables audiences to engage deeply with works in the NGV Collection and exhibitions through essays, interviews, a focus on new acquisitions and other editorial features. Six issues of NGV Magazine were published in print and online, featuring online-only audio, video, image galleries and reading. NGV Magazine profiled the NGV Collection in depth throughout the year, highlighting new acquisitions and displays through new essays by NGV authors and leading writers, academics and specialists.

During the Gallery’s temporary closure periods, NGV Magazine stories on the NGV Collection became a source for virtual programs, which were adapted into online programs focused on artists such as Elizabeth Keith, Françoise Gilot and Dora Maar; Rembrandt; and Albrecht Durer; as well as conservation topics. Previously published essays and digital content were shared with broader audiences via NGV Channel and social media platforms, and audio essays were added to the NGV Access website.

NGV Kids and Teens

NGV Kids and NGV Teens connect young people and their families with artists and their ideas, through a broad range of exhibitions, events, programs and publications. In collaboration with Japanese artist Misaki Kawai, the NGV presented the lively interactive exhibition for families Moja Moja Life: Misaki Kawai for Kids as part of the NGV Triennial.

Held across both sites and online, NGV Kids Summer Festival presented a free, nine-day event featuring artist-led activities, on-demand videos and exhibition discovery trails curated to reflect NGV Triennial themes, engaging children and their families.

The NGV Teens year-round program welcomes young people to the Gallery by providing art experiences where they can enjoy social events, engage with their peers and meet like-minded people. Industry Connections presented an opportunity for teens to engage online with artists and designers through career path discussions and Q&A sessions. Other teen events included Top Arts After Hours, which provided teens with an exclusive viewing of the exhibition Top Arts 2021, and the What is? series, which engaged young people through a focus on key themes from the NGV Triennial during virtual workshops exploring occupational fields and issues such as sustainable fashion, interior design and digital arts.

NGV Teen Council comprises a group of secondary-school students from across Melbourne; they represent their peers and collaborate on programs for teenagers at the Gallery. The program offers a unique work experience opportunity for participants, providing insights and access to the creative industries.

NGV Learning provides students and teachers of all levels with a rich variety of curriculum-aligned learning opportunities inspired by the NGV Collection and exhibitions. During 2020/21 programs, students and teachers participated in virtual excursions for students and professional learning programs for teachers, supporting learning in Visual Arts and Design, History, English and Languages. Highlight programs included introductory and focused sessions for exhibitions including DESTINY, Top Arts, Japanese Modernism, NGV Triennial, She-Oak and Sunlight: Australian Impressionism, We Change the World and Big Weather; and online summer schools for teachers and students that featured presentations by NGV Educators and curators as well as hands-on workshops with artists and designers. Through the support of the Department of Education and Training’s Victorian Challenge and Enrichment program, NGV Learn presented the Creative Catalyst series of programs for high-ability students in Victorian government schools that included studio challenges, creative-writing challenges and history challenges.

An extended season of Top Arts 2020 provided VCE Art and VCE Studio Arts students with valuable opportunities to engage with the exhibition onsite and online through 2020 and into 2021. Top Arts 2021 opened on 26 March 2021, showcasing the resilience and creativity of students who completed VCE Art and VCE Studio Arts during extended periods of remote learning in 2020, and was also supported by online learning programs and resources.

In addition to new online learning resources for major exhibitions, new online learning resources were added to the Great Art Ideas and Art Across the Curriculum series. New resources under the banner Art Industry Contexts were published to support the VCE Studio Arts curriculum.

Other programming included professional development programs for teachers and collaborations with key subject associations and education sector partners. Learning collaborators and partners in 2020/21 included Art Education Victoria, the Design and Technology Teachers Association, the Victorian Teachers of English as a Second Language, and the Victorian Association of Philosophy in Schools. A new program collaboration with the Asia Education Foundation culminated in a two-part online program, This Extraordinary Environment, which included a presentation by Indonesian art collective Tromarama. Forty-one schools from across Australia, Indonesia, India, Malaysia and the Philippines registered for the program. The annual La Trobe Summer School, an immersive, six-day accredited subject, was presented online in February 2021 with a focus on NGV Triennial and featured presentations by NGV staff from the Curatorial, Audience Engagement, Marketing and Publications departments.

A Meet NGV program for international students included a virtual visit to Jilamara Arts & Crafts Association with artists Pedro Wonaemirri and Michelle Pulatwayu Woody Minnapinni. Online interviews with Clinton Naina and Cassie Leatham were a highlight of NGV Learn Reconciliation Week activities.

DIVERSE COMMUNITIES

The NGV connected with audiences from diverse communities through audience engagement, learning initiatives and partnerships. These included programs presented in collaboration with the Koorie Heritage Trust, Afro Hub, Victorian Teachers of English as a Second Language, and Yellow Ladybugs, an autistic-led non-government organisation dedicated to the happiness, success and celebration of autistic girls and women.

Programs tailored to the needs of people with a disability included NGV Learning student and teacher professional programs for specialist schools; Relaxed Sessions; the Sharing Connections series of online programs for people living with dementia and their carers; and an NGV Triennial art-making video resource in Auslan for children inspired by the work of Diamond Stingily.

To celebrate Reconciliation Week (27 May – 3 June 2021) the NGV invited audiences to explore Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art and cultures at the NGV through online talks, videos, virtual exhibition tours, essays and activities for families and students that celebrated the theme More than a Word: Reconciliation Takes Action. Highlight programs included NGV Kids at Home: Art Club with artist Jenna Lee, and a talk for primary students featuring Cassie Leatham presented in collaboration with the Koorie Heritage Trust.

The NGV Kids on Tour program built on connections with the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre by hosting family groups from asylum-seeker or refugee backgrounds in a session using art to enhance wellbeing and social connection.

PUBLICATION HIGHLIGHTS

The NGV's strong publishing program continued in 2020/21 with the commissioning, development and release of forty-four publications across print and online. A full listing can be found on pages 58–62.

Significant scholarly titles published in 2020/21 include the major publication NGV Triennial 2020. This expansive publication, the largest ever published by the NGV, presents discourses by ninety writers from across the globe, among them academics, journalists, literary figures, social commentators, artists, designers and curators. Through essays, fiction, philosophy, interviews, analysis and poetry, they explore the practices and motivations of the artists and designers featured in 2020 NGV Triennial.

During 2020/21 the NGV also published two co-editions with Thames & Hudson: She-Oak and Sunlight: Australian Impressionism, and After the Australian Ugliness, a new book that responds to Robin Boyd's most well-known text, The Australian Ugliness (1960). Through critical and creative writing by authors from a range of disciplines, this new publication explores enduring questions about the elusive, sometimes lucky and sometimes ugly character of Australia today.

The Collection Tagging Project began with the goal to improve engagement with the NGV Collection online, empower research, make browsing more intuitive, and enable people to discover new connections between works of art.

OUTREACH AND REGIONAL ENGAGEMENT

A shift to the online delivery of Learning programs in 2020 provided unique benefits for rural and regional schools by removing time and travel costs, which are significant barriers to participation for schools. In 2020/21, there was a significant increase of participants in online programs, made up of students and teachers, that were from regional and remote areas. The NGV Learning department was successful in securing funding to develop Creative Catalyst, a program for high-ability students in Victorian government schools through the Department of Education Challenge and Enrichment series. This program transitioned online during COVID-19 and we had a great level of participation from regional areas. Additionally, the Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family School Support Program, which supports schools disadvantaged by economic, cultural or other circumstances, such as distance, was able to bring students and teachers from regional schools to the 2020 NGV Triennial. Furthermore, NGV Kids on Tour, held in January 2021, encouraged children and families across Victoria to engage with art and creativity though a range of free hands-on activities and workshops, reaching forty-two regional venues.

During January and February 2021, Wangaratta Art Gallery exhibited the iconic work from the NGV Collection, Tom Roberts Shearing the rams, 1890. This display coincided with the 130th anniversary of the work's creation. Two public programs were presented alongside the exhibition: A Conservator's Insights with Michael Varcoe-Cocks, NGV Associate Director, Conservation, and Shearing the rams: a snapshot into regional Australia's past with Sophie Gerhard, NGV Assistant Curator, Australian Painting, Sculpture and Decorative Arts to 1980.

The NGV Conservation department increased their outreach and regional engagement further in 2020/21, launching and participating in several initiatives and outreach programs on varied technical art historical topics and collection care advice for the Boroondara Council, Bendigo Art Gallery, Geelong Art Gallery, Counihan Art Gallery and Benalla Art Gallery, as well as for ABC Radio National and the NGV's Voluntary Guides. The department continued to support the NGV's regional loan program including the preparation and treatment of works on loan.

NGV Conservators presented at significant industry conferences, including a keynote talk at the Australian Institute for the Conservation of Cultural Material National Conference, the International Council of Museums Committee for Conservation (ICOM-CC) and the Australian Museums and Galleries Association (AMaGA). A new series of monthly Material Speciality and Advancements in Collection Care webinars were also delivered by NGV Conservation staff to members and affiliates of the Public Galleries Association of Victoria (PGAV).

Throughout the year, the NGV Conservation team led a range of member and supporter exclusive initiatives, including online lectures: Conserving and Displaying Fashion at the NGV, Albrecht Durer, Art in Focus: Another side of Grace Crowley, Secret life of Paintings, Art in Focus: Shearing the rams; Behind the Scenes: Conservation, and a fashion collection supporters evening titled Visionary Fashion Designers and NGV Foundation: Tom Roberts in Conservation. Objects conservators also hosted touch tours with Vision Australia, a program aimed at increasing access to the NGV Collection for those with low vision.

In support of NGV programs, members of the Conservation department contributed essays and multimedia content to the NGV online course titled Colour, and participated in social media features for International Day of Women and Girls in Science, Science Week and Ask a Conservator Day. The department regularly contributes to the NGV's digital channels, including a fortnightly story or post on the Gallery's social media and frequent contributions to the e-newsletter.

The Conservation department published contributions in NGV Magazine in 2020/21 and unique multimedia pieces to complement written content. Further to this, Conservation staff delivered presentations to NGV Voluntary Guides and published numerous essays on the NGV Channel.

In July 2020, NGV Conservation launched a new microsite featuring an overview of their activities with pages of image-rich conservation-related content, links to online projects and databases, and a breadth of archived ‘watch’, ‘listen’ and ‘read’ content, which continues to evolve. NGV painting conservators also contributed to the British Art virtual hub by writing technical entries to accompany curatorial essays on select works.

Support to the NGV Learning programs included conservation contributions to learning fact sheets and presentations at Industry insight days for VCE students. Lectures and a live Q&A session were delivered by the department as part of the NGV Learning Creativity Matters Forum with NGV Conservators, a platform developed to challenge high-ability students attending government schools.

As part of tertiary education outreach, Conservation staff hosted interns from the University of Melbourne’s Master of Cultural Materials Conservation course in the paper and photography, paintings and exhibitions conservation studios. The Conservation team also delivered lectures to students and university collections staff from the University of Melbourne, Deakin University and La Trobe University in the areas of technical art history, collection care and conservation and leadership in museums.

DIGITAL TRANSFORMATIONS

In 2020/21 NGV Learning continued to support students and teachers in the classroom, and those undertaking remote learning, through live educator-led virtual excursions to the NGV Collection or exhibitions, available to schools every weekday. In addition, a program of virtual professional learning activities was delivered that provided teachers with ideas and strategies related to teaching and learning with the NGV Collection and exhibitions.

NGV Kids and Teens presented a range of free live online events for toddlers and teens that comprised artist-led drawing workshops and demonstrations, providing opportunities to connect with the NGV, artists and industry professionals.

REALISING OUR POTENTIAL

SERVING THE COMMUNITY

Led by the Disability Access Committee, which includes representatives from across the organisation, the NGV continues to provide vital resources and services for people with a disability or autism to foster a welcoming and inclusive environment. During 2020/21 new resources included sensory maps of exhibitions, audio descriptions of NGV Collection highlights and NGV Triennial works, and the NGV Triennial ‘Small victories trophy workshop’ student video resource in Auslan.

In 2020, the Sharing Connections program transitioned to an online format to continue to support those in the community living with dementia and their carers during the Gallery’s temporary closure. A new online program, Seniors Tea with NGV, engaged isolated seniors in conversation inspired by art. Two new learning resources were published in Japanese and Chinese to engage language students. The NGV Learning department also collaborated with VicTESOL (Victorian Teachers of English as a Second Language) to produce a learning resource tailored to the needs of students learning English as an additional language. Other NGV programs designed to meet the needs of specific groups in the community included the Relaxed Sessions for people with autism or disability, and student and teacher professional learning programs to support art-based learning for students with special needs.

INNOVATION AND COLLABORATION

The NGV continued its leadership role as founding member of the International Audience Engagement (IAE) Network. With a steering group comprising the NGV, the Smithsonian National Museum of American History, National Gallery Singapore, Minneapolis Institute of Art, and the Museum of Modern Art, New York, the IAE Network offers guidelines around audience engagement as a professional field of practice for art museums and cultural entities. In December 2020, IAE Network Guidelines were released online, focusing on strategies for museums to define and measure wellness, as well as visitor journeys and success measures for audience engagement. The release of the guidelines coincided with two virtual webinars, including IAE Network: In Conversation, chaired by the IAE Steering Group for over forty representatives from international museums.

The NGV participated in the International Exhibition Organisers (IEO) Annual Conference 2021, serving as a member of the Steering Committee alongside a group of members from an international network of art galleries and museums. The IEO group nurtures invaluable professional connections between museums and galleries from around the globe, providing a platform for discussions and critical thinking around the organisation of exhibitions, and challenges faced by museums today. At the conference, the NGV together with members from the British Museum, Kunsthaus Zürich and Museum Catharijneconvent, presented on The New Normal, exploring museum practices since the COVID-19 pandemic began. The panellists shared the working practices they adopted throughout the pandemic and reflected on the positive ways in which the museum sector has responded to the crisis and what influences it will have on the future of exhibitions.

VOLUNTEER CONTRIBUTION

Volunteers play an important role in the NGV’s ability to deliver a wide range of services to our audiences, and the Gallery acknowledges the significant contribution of the many volunteers who dedicate their time to the Gallery during the year.

Throughout 2020/21, a team of NGV Guides has remained engaged with the Gallery, supported by the Guides Organising Committee (GOC), which meets monthly. Guides have played a vital role in supporting new online programs, including Seniors Tea with NGV and Gallery Visits You online, as well as contributing to NGV Magazine and to Instagram projects coordinated by the NGV Marketing team. Guides have also been actively involved in a number of research projects to prepare for the return to exhibition and NGV Collection guiding, and since the beginning of 2021 have attended weekly online lectures as part of their ongoing education program.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

In November 2020, the Victorian Government announced an investment of $1.46 billion to transform the Melbourne Arts Precinct. The first phase of this project includes the construction of NGV Contemporary and the new 18,000 square metre immersive public garden.

NGV Contemporary will be a landmark gallery that celebrates the central role of art and design in contemporary life and culture. With more than 10,000 square metres of exhibition space, it will be the largest museum of contemporary art and design in Australia. Located in the heart of the reimagined Melbourne Arts Precinct, NGV Contemporary will amplify Melbourne's leadership position as a global centre of architectural excellence, art, design and creative innovation.

Located at 77 Southbank Boulevard, NGV Contemporary will present a dedicated display of the NGV's dynamic collection of contemporary art and design, alongside year-round programming, events and major exhibitions.

During 2020/21, the NGV Contemporary Design Competition was launched, which sought submissions of visionary, sustainable and dynamic design approaches from a multidisciplinary Australian design team, and offered an unparalleled platform to showcase Australia's world-leading design and architecture industries. At the Competition's conclusion, the successful design team and design will be announced.

SHARING OUR VISION

Support from all areas of the community has had a tremendous influence on the NGV over the past year. Donations from individuals and foundations have not only sustained the growth and development of the NGV Collection, but also enabled the delivery of numerous Gallery programs and initiatives.

Active partnerships and collaborations with the academic, community, philanthropic and corporate sectors have greatly assisted the scope of the NGV’s programming, and government support has also been crucial in allowing the Gallery to fulfil its strategic aims.

SUPPORTED INITIATIVES

The NGV is extremely grateful to federal, state and local governments for their support of programs and exhibitions in 2020/21. The Australian Government International Exhibitions Insurance Program, which provides funding for the purchase of insurance for significant cultural exhibitions, assisted with extended insurance for the 2020 Keith Haring | Jean-Michel Basquiat: Crossing Lines exhibition until the works of art could be safely returned to lenders during COVID-19. They also assisted with the 2021 Melbourne Winter Masterpiece exhibition, French Impressionism: from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. Without this assistance, the high cost of insuring significant cultural items would prohibit major exhibitions from touring to Australia.

The Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority, Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools and Independent Schools Victoria continued to support the Top Arts 2021 exhibition of VCE Arts and Studio Arts students’ work.

The Victorian Summer Activation funding enabled the NGV to run the Triennial Extra 2021 program, a free late night experience of live performances, DJs, dance, food, pop-up bars and after-hours access to the 2020 NGV Triennial exhibition. In addition to extending access to the NGV Triennial, it supported local artists, musicians and performers.

FUNDRAISING AND PHILANTHROPY

Despite challenges faced by many people in the NGV’s philanthropic community over the last financial year, we have been delighted by the continued dedication and commitment from our donors. Research conducted within the charitable sector during the COVID-19 pandemic discovered that in times of uncertainty many donors chose to continue their support of the institutions they love and the causes that provide joy, enrichment and learning. We have found this to be true, particularly with online programming and virtual events becoming a vital source of engagement and connection with our supporters. This ongoing dedication led to a very positive level of support during 2020/21 with the NGV Foundation receiving more than $17 million in cash donations and gifted works of art. This support enables the NGV to continue reaching new levels of ambition for our programs and exhibitions, while forging ahead in our mission to build the most engaging encyclopaedic collection of art and design in our region.

Amid setbacks during 2020, the much-anticipated 2020 NGV Triennial was successfully delivered with the remarkable support of numerous donors who generously pledged their commitment to the exhibition, marking an important moment for the NGV Foundation. Over a number of years, the second NGV Triennial garnered the collective enthusiasm and dedication of over eighty individual donors and foundations, raising $10 million in funds. We are exceptionally grateful for the crucial encouragement and advocacy provided by all Triennial donors, who celebrated the exhibition and were proud to see it become a major cultural moment for Melbourne. It is a pleasure to highlight Triennial Champions: the Loti & Victor Smorgon Fund, Leigh Clifford AO and Sue Clifford, Barry Janes & Paul Cross, Felton Bequest, John Higgins AO and Jodie Maunder, NGVWA, Paula Fox AO and Lindsay Fox AC and Fox Family Foundation, Neville Bertalli and Diana Bertalli, Triennial Lead Supporters: Neilson Foundation, Joe White Bequest, Michael Tong and Emily Tong, Gordon Moffatt AM and Orloff Family Charitable Trust, as well as the full list of Triennial supporters on page 155.

The 2020 NGV Triennial coincided with the official announcement of the landmark NGV Contemporary project, set to become Australia’s largest home of contemporary art and design. As part of this, the NGV was delighted to formally recognise the leadership grant of $20 million pledged by The Ian Potter Foundation. This is the single largest grant in the foundation’s history and is anticipated to encourage additional philanthropic support.

Officially launched in May, the 2021 Annual Appeal captured the attention of the community. Coinciding with the 2021 Melbourne Winter Masterpieces exhibition: French Impressionism from the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, the NGV harnessed a rare opportunity to acquire a work by Berthe Morisot, an artist at the forefront of the French Impressionist movement in the late nineteenth-century. Morisot’s La Broderie, 1889, is a stunning example of her distinctive use of diffused light and feather-like brushstrokes, which defined the Impressionist style and firmly placed her alongside counterparts such as Claude Monet, Edgar Degas, Pierre-Auguste Renoir and Édouard Manet. Acquiring a work of this significance requires the collective efforts of many people, and we are extremely grateful to the everyone who has supported the 2021 Annual Appeal, in particular leadership donors Barry Janes and Paul Cross, Paula Fox AO and Fox Family Foundation, Norman Bloom and Pauline Bloom, Myriam Boisbouvier-Wylie and John Wylie AM, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family, Ken Harrison AM and Jill Harrison OAM, John and Rose Downer Foundation, Tim Fairfax AC and Gina Fairfax; major donors Mavourneen Cowen, Denise de Gruchy, Grollo

Building the NGV’s collection of art and design relies on the generosity of our supporters. A large number of donors provided assistance for curatorial strategies across all areas of collection development, from increasing the representation of emerging artists to addressing critical gaps in our historic collection. In particular we celebrate the incredible philanthropic gesture made by Emeritus Trustee and Life Members S. Baillieu Myer AC and Sarah Myer, which will assist the development of the Japanese and Korean collections. While the NGV’s doors may have been physically closed to the public for a large period of 2020/21, work behind the scenes continued to ensure NGV audiences could still enjoy meaningful experiences with art and design. Alongside this, projects and programs which facilitate the preservation of the NGV Collection and progression of our leadership in the field were developed. The philanthropic community played a vital role in supporting the Gallery’s initiatives and we wish to recognise Creative Victoria, Truby and Florence Williams Charitable Trust, The Hugh D. T. Williamson Foundation, Gordon Moffatt AM, Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family, City of Melbourne, Spotlight Foundation, Loris Orthwein, Paul Bonnici and Wendy Bonnici, Korea Foundation, Cicely and Colin Rigg Bequest, Ullmer Family Foundation, Lisa Fox, Susan Morgan OAM, Helen Robinson, Spencer Ko, Rachael Neumann, Michael Gannon and Helen Gannon, Betsy Polasek, Celia Sitch and Peter Sitch, Beatrice Moignard, JTM Foundation, Claire Hatch and Bruce Rowe, Susan Auster and Scanlon Foundation.

The power of legacy giving has been profoundly relevant over the last year and the NGV is extremely grateful for all bequest donors who consider the Gallery as part of their estate planning. Bequests provide crucial funds for areas most in need of support and play a vital role in the life of the Gallery. We recognise donors who pledged their commitment through a notified bequest to the NGV during the year including Ivanka Canet and Peter Canet, Claire Hatch and Bruce Rowe, Zara Kimpton OAM, Sue Prestney and Paul Glen, Christopher Young and Elisa Markes-Young, and Bishop Andrew St John. 2020/21 FINANCIAL REPORT

FIVE-YEAR FINANCIAL SUMMARY

BASIS OF PREPARATION

The Five-Year Financial Performance table distinguishes between the NGV’s operating and non-operating activities in 2020/21, a distinction not readily seen in the comprehensive operating statement. This distinction is important as the comprehensive operating statement includes grants, donations, bequests and expenditure that are committed for specific purposes including the purchase of works of art, Capital and one-off projects. These funds, in addition to investment income generated from the non-operating funds, are not available for operating purposes.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is treated as non-operating expenditure. The Victorian Government provides funding for capital purposes through the annual State Budget and Creative Victoria’s Cultural Facilities Maintenance Fund.

REVIEW OF OPERATING PERFORMANCE

The NGV continued to feel the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020/21, with the galleries closed to the public due to government restrictions for more than half the year, as below:

- 9 July 2020 to 23 November 2020 (NGV Australia)
- 9 July 2020 to 18 December 2020 (NGV International)
- 13 February 2021 to 17 February 2021 (both galleries)
- 28 May 2021 to 25 June 2021 (both galleries)

Despite these closures, the NGV welcomed 773,105 visitors during the financial year, including over 550,000 to the NGV Triennial 2020 and Triennial Extra. This Summer Program highlight commenced on the first day of NGVI re-opening in December, after the major lockdown of 2020. During the open periods the Gallery continued to deliver high-quality programming across exhibitions, collection displays, events, public programs and educational activities onsite, which in turn delivered self-generated revenue across all income streams, as well as corporate and philanthropic support. The NGV received $18.64 million of fundraising funding, including cash and gifts of works of art. The State Collection grew to over 73,000 artworks during the year as a result of 744 new acquisitions.

The Gallery continued to embrace the move to online service delivery in 2020/21, providing would-be visitors with a range of virtual tours, online programs and online courses, and providing ongoing connection to our audiences through social media platforms and direct email, including the hugely popular NGV Everyday initiative. Students were able to visit the Gallery through virtual excursions to major exhibitions, as well as a range of displays of artwork from the State Collection.

The 2020/21 financial year continued to be financially challenging, particularly given the lost revenue associated with building closures and low visitation. The NGV gratefully acknowledges the Victorian Government’s cashflow support during the financial year, addressing immediate cashflow needs ($22.97 million) including the reinstatement of the much-needed Operating Reserve (of $3.68 million).

The operating result for the year was a deficit of $0.29 million (2019/20: surplus $1.7 million).

REVIEW OF NON-OPERATING PERFORMANCE

The non-operating result fluctuates from year to year as it comprises investment income, cash and non-cash gifts, proceeds from bequests, capital and non-operating grants, fundraising activities and depreciation. The 2020/21 non-operating result increased by $23.61 million to $24.39 million. The non-operating surplus for 2020/21 is almost entirely as a result of the performance of the NGV’s Endowed Fund which is held for the acquisition of works of art. The Endowed Fund investment return fluctuates from year to year.

NET RESULT

The net result for the year, which is the sum of the operating and non-operating results, was a surplus of $24.1 million (2019/20: surplus $2.52 million) and the surplus is as a result of the performance of NGV’s Endowed Fund.

BALANCE SHEET

The NGV’s balance sheet is dominated by the State Collection. In June 2021 a valuation of the State Collection was completed by Jones Lang LaSalle Advisory Pty Ltd which resulted in a $516 million increase in fair value to $4.18 billion.

Property, plant and equipment increased by $40.85 million in 2020/21 as a result of the revaluation of land and buildings adding $51.39 million to fair value which was partly offset by $21.66 million in depreciation. Financial assets increased in fair value by $19.72 million as a result of the strong return on the Endowed fund during the year. The Financial assets are mostly held for the purchase of works of art, or other purposes as restricted by the donor or grantor.

FUTURE

The NGV was again closed to the public due to a COVID-19 lockdown from 16 to 27 July 2021, and it is likely that there will be further closures this financial year.

With the full financial impact of COVID-19 still unknown, the NGV continues to actively monitor its financial situation and is working closely with Creative Victoria and the Victorian Government.

INDEPENDENT AUDIT REPORT

Independent Auditor’s Report

To the Council of the National Gallery of Victoria

Opinion	I have audited the financial report of the National Gallery of Victoria (the entity) which comprises the: <ul style="list-style-type: none">balance sheet as at 30 June 2021comprehensive operating statement for the year then endedstatement of changes in equity for the year then endedcash flow statement for the year then endednotes to the financial statements, including significant accounting policiesdeclaration in the financial statement. In my opinion the financial report presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the entity as at 30 June 2021 and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with the financial reporting requirements of Part 7 of the Financial Management Act 1994 and applicable Australian Accounting Standards.
Basis for Opinion	I have conducted my audit in accordance with the Audit Act 1994 which incorporates the Australian Auditing Standards. I further describe my responsibilities under that Act and those standards in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of my report. My independence is established by the Constitution Act 1975. My staff and I are independent of the entity in accordance with the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board’s APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to my audit of the financial report in Victoria. My staff and I have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.
Key audit matters	Key audit matters are those matters that, in my professional judgement, were of most significance in my audit of the financial report of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of my audit of the financial report as a whole, and in forming my opinion thereon, and I do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How I addressed the matter
Fair value of culture assets Refer to Note 4.2 and Note 7.3.3 of the financial report
The entity held cultural assets totalling $4.2 billion as at 30 June 2021. They are recorded at fair value in accordance with AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement and Financial Reporting Direction (FRD) 1031 Non-financial physical assets issued by the Assistant Treasurer. I considered this to be a key audit matter because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> determining the fair value of cultural assets involves a high degree of subjectivity, estimation uncertainty and judgment management engages and relies on an expert to fair value these assets cultural assets represent a material component of total assets of the entity, are financially significant and important to the users of the financial report the fair value increment recognised during the year was $515.7 million. 	My key procedures included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> obtaining an understanding of the key controls operating in respect of the cultural assets collection including acquisition, accession, valuation and stocktaking procedures testing the operating effectiveness of key controls assessing the appropriateness of the skills and experience of management's expert valuer assessing the sufficiency and appropriateness of the materiality assessment, prepared by management's expert valuer assessing the reasonableness of key assumptions underlying the sampling methodology and foreign exchange movements in principal art markets agreeing values from the valuation report to the asset records assessing the appropriateness of the financial report disclosures for cultural assets in accordance with applicable reporting requirements.
Council's responsibilities for the financial report	The Council of the entity is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Financial Management Act 1994, and for such internal control as the Council determines is necessary to enable the preparation and fair presentation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial report, the Council is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless it is inappropriate to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial report	As required by the Audit Act 1994, my responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on the audit. My objectives for the audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report. As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, I exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Council conclude on the appropriateness of the Council's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the entity to cease to continue as a going concern. evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation. I communicate with the Council regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit. From the matters communicated with the Council, I determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial report of the current period and are therefore key audit matters. I describe these matters in the auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, I determine that a matter should not be communicated in the auditor's report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2021

NOTE 1. ABOUT THIS REPORT

The financial statements cover the National Gallery of Victoria as an individual reporting entity. The National Gallery of Victoria is a statutory authority established under the National Gallery of Victoria Act 1966, as amended, of the State of Victoria. Its principal address is:

180 St Kilda Road
Melbourne Victoria 3004

The National Gallery of Victoria is an administrative agency acting on behalf of the Crown.

A description of the nature of the National Gallery of Victoria's operations and its principal activities is included in the Report of operations on page 5 which does not form part of these financial statements.

Basis of preparation
These financial statements are presented in Australian dollars and the historical cost convention is used unless a different measurement basis is specifically disclosed in the note associated with the item measured on a different basis.

The accrual basis of accounting has been applied in the preparation of these financial statements whereby assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses are recognised in the reporting period to which they relate, regardless of when cash is received or paid.

Consistent with the requirements of AASB 1004 Contributions, contributions by owners (that is, contributed capital and its repayment) are treated as equity transactions and, therefore, do not form part of the income and expenses of the National Gallery of Victoria. Additions to net assets which have been designated as contributions by owners are recognised as contributed capital.

Judgements, estimates and assumptions are required to be made about financial information presented. The significant judgements made in the preparation of these financial statements are disclosed in the notes where amounts affected by those judgements are disclosed. Estimates and associated assumptions are based on professional judgements derived from historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised and also in future periods that are affected by the revision. Judgements and assumptions made by management in the application of Australian Accounting Standards (AASs) that have significant effects on the financial statements and estimates are disclosed under the heading: "Significant judgements or estimates".

All amounts in the financial statements have been rounded to the nearest $1,000 unless otherwise stated.

Compliance information
These general purpose financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Management Act 1994 (FMA) and applicable Australian Accounting Standards (AASs) which include Interpretations, issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB).

In particular, they are presented in a manner consistent with the requirements of AASB 1049 Whole of Government and General Government Sector Financial Reporting.

Where appropriate, those AASB paragraphs applicable to not-for-profit entities have been applied.

NOTE 2. FUNDING DELIVERY OF OUR SERVICES

Accounting policies selected and applied in these financial statements ensure that the resulting financial information satisfies the concepts of relevance and reliability, thereby ensuring that the substance of the underlying transactions or other events is reported.

The National Gallery of Victoria receives revenue from the Victorian State Government, commercial activities and philanthropic sources to meet its objectives. The State Government funding principally comprises the Government appropriation, grants for exhibitions, capital funding and other ad hoc grants. The National Gallery of Victoria also receives a capital asset charge grant from the State Government as outlined in 2.1.2. The broad revenue streams are outlined from 2.1 to 2.4.

Structure

2.3.1 Donations, bequests and philanthropic grants income
2.3.2 Donated cultural assets
2.4 Income from investments

2.1 Grants from State and Commonwealth Government entities

Income is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the National Gallery of Victoria and the income can be reliably measured at fair value.

The National Gallery of Victoria has determined that all grant income is recognised as income of not-for-profit entities in accordance with AASB 1058, except for grants that are enforceable and with sufficiently specific performance obligations and accounted for as revenue from contracts with customers in accordance with AASB 15.

Grants recognised under AASB 1058
The National Gallery of Victoria has determined that grant income under AASB 1058 has been earned under arrangements that are either not enforceable and/or linked to specific performance obligations.

Income from grants without any sufficiently specific performance obligations, or that are not enforceable, is recognised when the National Gallery of Victoria has an unconditional right to receive cash which usually coincides with receipt of cash. On initial recognition of the asset, the National Gallery of Victoria recognises any related contributions by owners, increases in liabilities, decreases in assets, and revenue ('related amounts') in accordance with other Australian Accounting Standards. Related amounts may take the form of:

- contributions by owners, in accordance with AASB 1004;
- revenue or a contract liability arising from a contract with a customer, in accordance with AASB 15;
- a lease liability in accordance with AASB 16;
- a financial instrument, in accordance with AASB 9; or
- a provision, in accordance with AASB 137 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets.

Grants recognised under AASB 15
Income from grants that are enforceable and with sufficiently specific performance obligations are accounted for as revenue from contracts with customers under AASB 15. Revenue is recognised when the National Gallery of Victoria satisfies the performance obligations.

Revenue is recognised for each of the major activities as follows:

2.1.1 State Government - recurrent appropriation and other grants from State and Commonwealth Government entities

Appropriations
Once annual Parliamentary appropriations are applied by the Treasurer and paid by the Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions to the National Gallery of Victoria they become controlled by the National Gallery of Victoria and are recognised as income when applied for the purposes defined under the relevant Appropriations Act.

2.1.2 State Government - capital assets charge grant

The State Government capital assets charge grant represents the opportunity cost of capital invested in the non-current physical assets used in the provision of outputs. The grant is calculated on the carrying amount of non-current physical assets (excluding heritage and cultural assets) and is matched by an equivalent government charge.

Contributions of resources provided free of charge or for nominal consideration are recognised at their fair value when the recipient obtains control over the resources, irrespective of whether restrictions or conditions are imposed over the use of the contributions.

2.2 Operating activities income

Performance obligations and revenue recognition policies

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in the contract with the customer. The National Gallery of Victoria recognises revenue when it transfers control of a good or service to the customer. As the sales are made with a short credit term, there is no financing element present. Revenue is recognised when, or as, the performance obligations for the sale of goods and services to the customer are satisfied. Income from the rendering of services is recognised at a point in time when the performance obligation is satisfied when the service is completed; and over time when the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the services as it is provided.

Consideration received in advance of recognising the associated revenue from the customer is recorded as a contract liability. Where the performance obligation is satisfied but not yet billed, a contract asset is recorded

Wages and salaries, annual leave and sick leave: Liabilities for wages and salaries (including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and on-costs) are recognised as part of the employee benefit provision as current liabilities, because the National Gallery of Victoria does not have an unconditional right to defer settlements of these liabilities.

The liability for salaries and wages are recognised in the balance sheet at remuneration rates which are current at the reporting date. As the National Gallery of Victoria expects the liabilities to be wholly settled within 12 months of reporting date, they are measured at undiscounted amounts.

The annual leave liability is classified as a current liability and measured at the undiscounted amount expected to be paid, as the National Gallery of Victoria does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

No provision has been made for sick leave as all sick leave is non-vesting and it is not considered probable that the average sick leave taken in the future will be greater than the benefits accrued in the future. As sick leave is non-vesting, an expense is recognised in the Comprehensive Operating Statement as it is taken.

Employment on-costs such as payroll tax, workers compensation and superannuation are not employee benefits. They are disclosed separately as a component of the provision for employee benefits when the employment to which they relate has occurred.

3.1.4 Long service leave

Unconditional LSL is disclosed as a current liability; even where the National Gallery of Victoria does not expect to settle the liability within 12 months because it will not have the unconditional right to defer the settlement of the entitlement should an employee take leave within 12 months.

The components of this current LSL liability are measured at:

- undiscounted value – if the National Gallery of Victoria expects to wholly settle within 12 months; or
- present value – if the National Gallery of Victoria does not expect to wholly settle within 12 months.

Conditional LSL is disclosed as a non-current liability. There is an unconditional right to defer the settlement of the entitlement until the employee has completed the requisite years of service. This non-current LSL is measured at present value.

Any gain or loss following revaluation of the present value of non-current LSL liability is recognised as a transaction, except to the extent that a gain or loss arises due to changes in bond interest rates for which it is then recognised as an ‘other economic flow’ in the net result.

3.1.5 Superannuation contributions

The National Gallery of Victoria has staff who are members of the public-sector superannuation schemes listed below.

The name, details and amounts expensed in relation to the major employee superannuation funds and contributions paid or payable by the National Gallery of Victoria are as follows:

A charge levied on the written-down value of controlled non-current physical assets (excluding heritage and cultural assets) in the National Gallery of Victoria’s balance sheet which aims to attribute to the National Gallery of Victoria’s outputs, the opportunity cost of capital used in service delivery and provide incentives to the National Gallery of Victoria to identify and dispose of underutilised or surplus assets in a timely manner. The capital asset charge is calculated on the budgeted carrying amount of applicable non-financial physical assets.

NOTE 4. KEY ASSETS AVAILABLE TO SUPPORT OUTPUT DELIVERY

The National Gallery of Victoria controls assets for the delivery of its services. The key assets identified in delivering these services are:

(i) A valuation of land was undertaken as of 30 June 2021 and a managerial valuation as of 30 June 2020.
(ii) A valuation of buildings, building plant and building fit-out was undertaken as of 30 June 2021 and a managerial valuation as of 30 June 2020.

Initial recognition: Items of property, plant and equipment, are measured initially at cost and subsequently revalued at fair value less accumulated depreciation and impairment. Where an asset is acquired for no or nominal cost, the cost is its fair value at the date of acquisition.

The cost of constructed non-financial physical assets includes the cost of all materials used in construction, direct labour on the project and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overheads.

The cost of a leasehold improvement is capitalised and depreciated over the shorter of the remaining term of the lease or their estimated useful lives.

Subsequent measurement:
Property, plant and equipment (PPE) as well as right-of-use assets under leases are subsequently measured at fair value less accumulated depreciation and impairment. Fair value is determined with regard to the asset’s highest and best use (considering legal or physical restrictions imposed on the asset, public announcements or commitments made in relation to the intended use of the asset) and is summarised on the following page by asset category.

As at 30 June 2021 an independent valuation of the National Gallery of Victoria’s land was performed by Valuer-General Victoria and an independent valuation of the building was performed by Napier & Blakeley Pty Ltd on behalf of the Valuer-General Victoria.

An external revaluation process is required every five years, based upon the asset’s Government Purpose Classification, but may occur more frequently if material movements in fair value are identified.

Right-of-use asset acquired by lessees – Initial measurement:
The National Gallery of Victoria recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for:

- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentive received; plus
- any initial direct costs incurred; and
- an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located.

Right-of-use asset – Subsequent measurement:
The National Gallery of Victoria depreciates the right-of-use assets on a straight-line basis from the lease commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. The right-of-use assets are also subject to revaluation.

In addition, the right-of-use asset is periodically reduced by impairment losses, if any and adjusted for certain remeasurements of the lease liability.

Specialised land
The market approach is used for specialised land, although it is adjusted for the community service obligation (CSO) to reflect the specialised nature of the land being valued. Under the market approach the land is compared to recent comparable sales and in the interim years between valuations is adjusted to reflect the movement in Valuer-General Victoria land indices, if material. The CSO adjustment is a reflection of the valuer’s assessment of the impact of restrictions associated with the land to the extent that is also equally applicable to market participants.

Heritage Building – Buildings, Building plant and Building fit-out
The depreciated reproduction cost is the valuation method used for the National Gallery of Victoria’s building, adjusting for the associated depreciation. Reproduction cost represents the cost of reconstruction including professional fees and escalation however excludes the cost of demolition and removal of debris of the existing building. It also assumes destruction occurs on the date for financial reporting. Depreciated reproduction costs reflect reproduction cost after applying depreciation on a useful life basis.

Leasehold improvements
Leasehold improvements are held at fair value which has been determined as depreciated value and are depreciated over the period of the lease or estimated useful life of the asset, whichever is shorter.

Plant and equipment
Plant and equipment is held at fair value which has been determined using the depreciated replacement cost method.

The following tables are subsets of buildings, and plant and equipment by right-of-use assets and service concession assets.

4.1.1 Depreciation

	($ thousand)
Depreciation charge for the period	2021	2020
Buildings (i)	4,162	3,867
Building plant	5,649	5,667
Building fit-outs	9,583	9,617
Leasehold improvements	84	86
Plant and equipment (general plant & equipment)	2,178	2,188
Total depreciation	21,656	21,425

(i) The table incorporates depreciation of right-of-use assets as AASB 16 Leases

Property, plant and equipment, including buildings but excluding land have finite lives and are depreciated. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis at rates that allocate the asset’s value, less any estimated residual value, over its estimated useful life. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the period of the lease or the asset’s estimated useful life, whichever is the shorter, using the straight-line method.

The following useful lives of assets are used in the calculation of depreciation:

Remaining useful life

Buildings	82 years	Building fit-out	12 years
Buildings (right-of-use assets)	5–10 years	Leasehold improvements	10 years
Building plant	27 years	Plant and equipment (including leased assets)	3–30 years

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each annual reporting period. Where it is determined that the estimated useful life of an asset has changed, the depreciation rate for that asset is adjusted accordingly.

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset’s useful life and the lease term. Where the National Gallery of Victoria obtains ownership of the underlying leased asset or if the cost of the right-of-use asset reflects that the entity will exercise a purchase option, the entity depreciates the right-of-use asset over its useful life.

Land and Cultural assets are not depreciated.

4.1.2 Impairment

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are assessed annually for indications of impairment.

If there is an indication of impairment, the assets concerned are tested as to whether their carrying value exceeds their recoverable amount. Where an asset’s carrying value exceeds its recoverable amount, the difference is written off as another economic flow, except to the extent that the write down can be debited to an asset revaluation surplus amount applicable to that class of asset.

If there is an indication that there has been a reversal in impairment, the carrying amount shall be increased to its recoverable amount. However, this reversal should not increase the asset’s carrying amount above what would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised in prior years.

The recoverable amount of primarily non-cash-generating assets of not-for-profit entities, which are typically specialised in nature and held for continuing use of their service capacity, is expected to be materially the same as fair value determined under AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement, with the consequence that AASB 136 does not apply to such assets that are regularly revalued.

4.1.3 Reconciliation of movement in carrying values of property, plant and equipment

Shaw Research Library collection – at fair value	4,500	4,636
	4,176,390	3,646,653

Cultural assets comprise works of art in the State Collection and other cultural assets. Control of the State Collection is vested in the Council of Trustees of the National Gallery of Victoria by virtue of the National Gallery of Victoria Act 1966, as amended. Additions to the State Collection may take the form of either a purchase by the National Gallery of Victoria or a donation from a third party.

All cultural assets are held for exhibition, education, research and historical interest. Such assets are deemed worthy of preservation because of the social rather than financial benefits they provide to the community. The nature of these assets means that there are certain limitations and restrictions imposed on their use and/or disposal.

Purchased cultural assets are initially carried at cost and revalued subsequently at fair value. Donated or bequeathed cultural assets are carried at fair value. Cultural assets are not depreciated as they do not have a finite useful life. The current use is considered the highest and best use.

An external revaluation process is required every five years, based upon the asset’s Government Purpose Classification, but may occur more frequently if material movements in fair value are identified. An independent valuation of the State Collection of works of art was performed by Jones Lang LaSalle Valuations & Advisory (JLL) as at 30 June 2021 on behalf of the Valuer-General Victoria. JLL utilised expert valuers approved under the Commonwealth of Australia Taxation Incentives for the Arts Scheme and other academic and professional bodies. The valuations are performed on the assumption of highest and best use.

For the previous four years, JLL performed annual fair value assessments of the State Collection. This involved consideration of year-on-year movements in relevant art markets and transactions for artist and artwork specific to the artworks under consideration. These movements were applied to the valuations developed in the 2016 comprehensive valuation and the results extrapolated across the populations of the sub-collections. Further consideration was given to changes in foreign exchange rates relevant to the principal art markets identified for each work in 2016.

As a result of the scheduled valuation of the State Collection in 2021 a revaluation increment of $515.67 million has been applied in 2020-21 given the outcome of the fair value assessment.

JLL considered the impact of COVID-19 on the art markets in their review of the valuation assessment in June 2020.

An independent valuation of the National Gallery of Victoria’s Shaw Research Library collection was performed by Sainsbury’s Books Valuers Pty Ltd, a member of the Antiquarian Booksellers Association as at 30 June 2016.

The National Gallery of Victoria holds cash, deposits and investments to provide for future operating and capital purposes, including the purchase of works of art for the State Collection. Funds are classified as current or non-current.

Current funds represent funds held either in transactional bank accounts or invested in order to reduce volatility in value and optimise the investment income earned.

Non-current funds represent funds held in perpetuity (endowed funds) and invested with the intent of maximising their long-term value. As a result, these funds may experience more volatility in value.

Investments held by the National Gallery of Victoria are measured at fair value through net result in the manner described in Note 7.3.1.

Victorian Government departments and agencies	2,610	–
	2,970	491
Total receivables represented by current receivables	4,087	2,588

Contractual receivables are classified as financial instruments and categorised as financial assets at amortised cost. They are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. The National Gallery of Victoria holds the contractual receivables with the objective to collect the contractual cash flows and therefore subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment.

Statutory receivables do not arise from contracts and are recognised and measured similarly to contractual receivables (except for impairment), but are not classified as financial instruments for disclosure purposes. The National Gallery of Victoria applies AASB 9 for initial measurement of the statutory receivables and as a result statutory receivables are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction cost. Statutory receivables include amounts owing from the Victorian Government.

Details about the National Gallery of Victoria’s impairment policies, the National Gallery of Victoria’s exposure to credit risk, and the calculation of the loss allowance are set out in notes 7.1.3(b) and (c).

Goods held for resale – at cost	2,178	3,270
Less: provision for slow moving stock	(648)	(1,584)
Total current inventories	1,530	1,686

Inventories are held for sale in the ordinary course of business operations and are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value. A provision for stock obsolescence is made when there is objective evidence that an inventory item may be economically impaired. The provision for slow moving stock was increased in 2019-20 as a result of the impact of COVID-19 due to the National Gallery of Victoria closing prior to the planned close of the two summer exhibitions and consequently reducing the opportunity to sell stock purchased for these exhibitions.

5.3 Other non-financial assets

Total non-current other assets	18,543	3,764
Total prepayments and other assets	22,733	5,078

Prepayments and other assets represent payments in advance of receipt of goods or services or that are part of expenditure made in one accounting period covering a term extending beyond that period.

Contract liabilities	2,027	1,410
Statutory
Amounts payable to other government agencies	1,655	3,999
Total payables represented by current payables	8,535	11,683

Payables consist of:

- Contractual payables, classified as financial instruments and measured at amortised cost. Accounts payable represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the National Gallery of Victoria prior to the end of the financial year that are unpaid; and
- Statutory payables, that are recognised and measured similarly to contractual payables, but are not classified as financial instruments and not included in the category of financial liabilities at amortised cost, because they do not arise from contracts.

Payables for supplies and services have an average credit period of 30 days. No interest is charged on the Payables for supplies and services and Other payables.

NOTE 6. FINANCING OUR OPERATIONS

This section provides information on sources of finance used by the National Gallery of Victoria during its operations.

- 6.1 Borrowings
- 6.2 Leases
- 6.3 Cash flow information and balances
- 6.4 Reconciliation of net result for the period to net cash flows from operating activities
- 6.5 Commitments for future expenditure

6.1 Borrowings

Borrowings refer to the loan from the Department of Treasury and Finance as part of the Greener Government Buildings (GGB) program as well as lease liabilities. The purpose of the GGB loan is to implement an Energy Performance Contract project which will reduce energy consumption. The GGB loan is interest free and is to be repaid over a period of five years. Under AASB 9 Financial Instruments, the loan has been valued according to the effective interest method. Under the effective interest method the value of the GGB loan is recognised at present value using the effective interest method with the difference recognised as a gain on receipt of interest free loan. The gain is recognised in the Comprehensive Operating Statement and the GGB loan is reduced each year by the difference between the payment amount and effective interest. The interest rate used in determining the present value of the GGB loan is the TCV yield rate as at 30 June 2021.

Total borrowings are reflected in the table below:

($ thousand)
	2021	2020
Current borrowings
Lease liabilities (i)	3,689	2,888
Loan from Government (ii)	421	417

Total non-current borrowings	24,648	23,824
Total	28,758	27,129
(i) Secured by the assets leased. Lease liabilities are effectively secured as the rights to the leased assets revert to the lessor in the event of default.
(ii) Greener Governments Building loan from the Department of Treasury and Finance.

6.2 Leases

Information about leases for which the National Gallery of Victoria is a lessee is presented below.

The National Gallery of Victoria's leasing activities

The National Gallery of Victoria leases various properties, IT equipment and motor vehicles. The lease contracts are typically made for fixed periods of 1-10 years with an option to renew the lease after that date. Lease payments for properties are re-negotiated to reflect market rentals.

The National Gallery of Victoria has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for:

- Short-term leases – leases with a term less than 12 months; and
- Low value leases – leases where the underlying asset's fair value (when new, regardless of the age of the asset being leased) is no more than $10,000.

6.2 (a) Amounts recognised in the Comprehensive Operating Statement

The following amounts are recognised in the Comprehensive Operating Statement relating to leases:

($ thousand)
	2021	2020
Interest expense on lease liabilities	1,056	1,005
Expenses relating to leases of low-value assets	1,047	1,287
Total	2,103	2,292

6.2 (b) Amounts recognised in the Statement of Cashflows

The following amounts are recognised in the Statement of Cashflows for the year ending 30 June 2021 relating to leases.

($ thousand)
	2021	2020
Total cash outflow for leases	2,243	3,948

For any new contracts entered into, the National Gallery of Victoria considers whether a contract is, or contains a lease. A lease is defined as 'a contract, or part of a contract, that conveys the right to use an asset (the underlying asset) for a period of time in exchange for consideration'. To apply this definition the National Gallery of Victoria assesses whether the contract meets three key evaluations:

- Whether the contract contains an identified asset, which is either explicitly identified in the contract or implicitly specified by being identified at the time the asset is made available to the National Gallery of Victoria and for which the supplier does not have substantive substitution rights;
- Whether the National Gallery of Victoria has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the identified asset throughout the period of use, considering its rights within the defined scope of the contract and the National Gallery of Victoria has the right to direct the use of the identified asset throughout the period of use; and
- Whether the National Gallery of Victoria has the right to take decisions in respect of 'how and for what purpose' the asset is used throughout the period of use.

This policy is applied to contracts entered into, or changed, on or after 1 July 2019.

Separation of lease and non-lease components

At inception or on reassessment of a contract that contains a lease component, the lessee is required to separate out and account separately for non-lease components within a lease contract and exclude these amounts when determining the lease liability and right-of-use asset amount.

Recognition and measurement of leases as a lessee

Lease Liability – initial measurement

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments unpaid at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease if that rate is readily determinable or the National Gallery of Victoria's incremental borrowing rate.

Lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentive receivable; and
- variable payments based on an index or rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date.

Lease Liability – subsequent measurement

Subsequent to initial measurement, the liability will be reduced for payments made and increased for interest. It is remeasured to reflect any reassessment or modification, or if there are changes to in-substance fixed payments.

When the lease liability is remeasured, the corresponding adjustment is reflected in the right-of-use asset, or profit and loss if the right-of-use asset is already reduced to zero.

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The National Gallery of Victoria has elected to account leases of low-value assets using the practical expedients. Instead of recognising a right-of-use asset and lease liability, the payments in relation to these are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Presentation of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities

The National Gallery of Victoria presents right-of-use assets as 'property plant equipment' in the balance sheet. Lease liabilities are presented as 'borrowings' in the balance sheet.

6.3 Cash flow information and balances

Cash and deposits comprise cash on hand and cash at bank, deposits at call and those highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less, which are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment purposes, and which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

For cash flow statement presentation purposes, cash and cash equivalents include bank overdrafts, which are included as current borrowings on the balance sheet, as indicated in the reconciliation below.

NOTE 7. RISK, CONTINGENCIES AND VALUATION JUDGEMENTS

Introduction

The National Gallery of Victoria is exposed to risk from its activities and outside factors. In addition, it is often necessary to make judgements and estimates associated with recognition and measurement of items in the financial statements. This section sets out financial instrument specific information, (including exposures to financial risks) as well as those items that are contingent in nature or require a higher level of judgement to be applied, which for the National Gallery of Victoria related mainly to fair value determination.

7.1 Financial instruments specific disclosures

Introduction

Financial instruments arise out of contractual agreements that give rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. Certain financial assets and financial liabilities arise under statute rather than a contract (for example taxes and amounts payable to other government agencies). Such assets and liabilities do not meet the definition of financial instruments in AASB 132 Financial Instruments: Presentation.

The National Gallery of Victoria classifies all of its financial assets based on the business model for managing the assets and the asset’s contractual terms.

Categories of financial assets

Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are measured at amortised costs if both of the following criteria are met and the assets are not designated as fair value through net result:

- the assets are held by the National Gallery of Victoria to collect the contractual cash flows, and
- the assets’ contractual terms give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interests.

These assets are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method less any impairment.

The National Gallery of Victoria recognises the following assets in this category:

- cash and deposits;
- receivables (excluding statutory receivables); and
- other financial assets.

Financial assets at fair value through net result

Equity instruments that are held for trading as well as derivative instruments are classified as fair value through net result. Other financial assets are required to be measured at fair value through net result unless they are measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income as explained above.

However, as an exception to those rules above, the National Gallery of Victoria may, at initial recognition, irrevocably designate financial assets as measured at fair value through net result if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces a measurement or recognition inconsistency (‘accounting mismatch’) that would otherwise arise from measuring assets or liabilities or recognising the gains and losses on them on different bases.

The National Gallery of Victoria has designated all of its investments in managed unit trusts and derivative assets at fair value through net result.

Categories of financial liabilities

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities at amortised cost are initially recognised on the date they are originated. They are initially measured at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these financial instruments are measured at amortised cost with any difference between the initial recognised amount and the redemption value being recognised in profit and loss over the period of the interest-bearing liability, using the effective interest rate method. The National Gallery of Victoria recognises payables (excluding statutory payables) and borrowings in this category.

Derivative liabilities

Derivative liabilities are measured at fair value through net result.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial instrument assets and liabilities are offset, and the net amount presented in the consolidated balance sheet when, and only when, the National Gallery of Victoria has a legal right to offset the amounts and intend either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognised when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the National Gallery of Victoria retains the right to receive cash flows from the asset, but has assumed an obligation to pay them in full without material delay to a third party under a ‘pass through’ arrangement; or
- the National Gallery of Victoria has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset and either:
 - has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset; or
 - has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset but has transferred control of the asset.

Where the National Gallery of Victoria has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards or transferred control, the asset is recognised to the extent of the National Gallery of Victoria’s continuing involvement in the asset.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised as an ‘other economic flow’ in the comprehensive operating statement.

Reclassification of financial instruments

Subsequent to initial recognition reclassification of financial liabilities is not permitted. Financial assets are required to be reclassified between fair value through net result, fair value through other comprehensive income and amortised cost when and only when the National Gallery of Victoria’s business model for managing its financial assets has changes such that its previous model would no longer apply.

However, the National Gallery of Victoria is generally unable to change its business model because it is determined by the Performance Management Framework (PMF) and all Victorian government departments are required to apply the PMF under the Standing Directions of the Assistant Treasurer 2018.

If under rare circumstances an asset is reclassified, the reclassification is applied prospectively from the reclassification date and previously recognised gains, losses or interest should not be restated. If the asset is reclassified to fair value, the fair value should be determined at the reclassification date and any gain or loss arising from a difference between the previous carrying amount and fair value is recognised in net result.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

As a whole, the National Gallery of Victoria’s financial risk management program seeks to manage these risks and the associated volatility of its financial performance. Details of the significant accounting policies and methods adopted, including the criteria for recognition, the basis of measurement, and the basis on which income and expenses are recognised, with respect to each class of financial asset and financial liability are disclosed in Note 7.3 to the financial statements. The main purpose in holding financial instruments is to prudentially manage the National Gallery of Victoria’s financial risks within the government policy parameters. The National Gallery of Victoria’s main financial risks include credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk, foreign currency risk and equity price risk. The National Gallery of Victoria manages these financial risks in accordance with its financial risk management policy. The National Gallery of Victoria uses different methods to measure and manage the different risks to which it is exposed. Primary responsibility for the identification and management of financial risks rests with the Accountable Officer of the National Gallery of Victoria.

7.1.3 Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the possibility that a borrower will default on its financial obligations as and when they fall due. The National Gallery of Victoria’s exposure to credit risk arises from the potential default of a counter party on their contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the National Gallery of Victoria. Credit risk is measured at fair value and is monitored on a regular basis.

At the balance sheet date, the maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets and, in particular, receivables is the carrying amount. The credit risk in relation to trade debtors is managed through processes and procedures for the establishment of credit and the collecting of overdue amounts.

Provision of impairment for contractual financial assets is recognised when there is objective evidence that the National Gallery of Victoria will not be able to collect a receivable. Objective evidence includes financial difficulties of the debtor, default payments, debts that are more than 60 days overdue, and changes in debtor credit ratings. Contract financial assets are written off against the carrying amount when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Bad debt written off by mutual consent is classified as a transaction expense. Bad debt written off following a unilateral decision is recognised as other economic flows in the net result. Except as otherwise detailed in the following table, the carrying amount of contractual financial assets recorded in the financial statements, net of any allowances for losses, represents the National Gallery of Victoria’s maximum exposure to credit risk without taking account of the value of any collateral obtained.

There has been no material change to the National Gallery of Victoria’s credit risk profile in 2020–21.

(ii) VFMC invests in unregistered unit trusts which are not rated.

Impairment of financial assets under AASB 9

The National Gallery of Victoria records the allowance for expected credit loss for the relevant financial instruments applying AASB 9’s Expected Credit Loss approach. Subject to AASB 9 impairment assessment includes the National Gallery of Victoria’s contractual receivables, statutory receivables and its investment in debt instruments.

Equity instruments are not subject to impairment under AASB 9. Other financial assets mandatorily measured or designated at fair value through net result are not subject to impairment assessment under AASB 9. While cash and cash equivalents are also subject to the impairment requirements of AASB 9, the identified impairment loss was immaterial.

Although not a financial asset, contract assets recognised applying AASB 15 (refer to Note 2.2) are also subject to impairment however it is immaterial.

Contractual receivables at amortised cost

The National Gallery of Victoria applies AASB 9 simplified approach for all contractual receivables to measure expected credit losses using a lifetime expected loss allowance based on the assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The National Gallery of Victoria has grouped contractual receivables on shared credit risk characteristics and days past due and select the expected credit loss rate based on the National Gallery of Victoria’s past history, existing market conditions, as well as forward-looking estimates at the end of the financial year. On this basis, the National Gallery of Victoria determines the opening loss allowance on initial application date of AASB 9 and the closing loss allowance at end of the financial year as follows:

7.1.3(b): Contractual receivables at amortised cost

($ thousand)

Balance at beginning of the year	(7)	(7)
(Increase)/decrease in provision recognised in the net result	(15)	–
Balance at end of the year	(22)	(7)

The average credit period for sales on credit is 30 days. Recovery of late outstanding amounts is managed on a case by case basis through credit management procedures.

Credit loss allowance is classified as other economic flows in the net result. Contractual receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery and impairment losses are classified as a transaction expense. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against the same line item.

Statutory receivables and debt investments at amortised cost
The National Gallery of Victoria’s non-contractual receivables arising from statutory requirements are not financial instruments. However, they are nevertheless recognised and measured in accordance with AASB 9 requirements as if those receivables are financial instruments.

Statutory receivables are considered to have low credit risk, taking into account the risk of default and capacity to meet contractual cash flow obligations in the near term. As a result, the loss allowance recognised for these financial assets during the period was limited to 12 months expected losses.

7.1.4 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk arises from being unable to meet financial obligations as they fall due. The National Gallery of Victoria operates under the Government fair payments policy of settling financial obligations within 30 days and in the event of a dispute, making payments within 30 days from the date of resolution. The National Gallery of Victoria is exposed to liquidity risk mainly through the financial liabilities as disclosed in the face of the balance sheet.

The National Gallery of Victoria manages its liquidity risk by:

- maintaining an adequate level of uncommitted funds that can be drawn at short notice to meet its short-term obligations; and
- careful maturity planning of its financial obligations based on forecasts of future cash flows.

The table below shows the maturity analysis of the contractual undiscounted cash flows for borrowings:

	Less than 1 Year	1 – 5 Years	5+ Years	Total
Greener Government Buildings loan	425,293	1,329,496	–	1,754,789

Total	4,114,013	17,064,088	7,579,548	28,757,649

Market risk

The National Gallery of Victoria’s exposures to market risk are primarily through foreign currency risk, interest rate risk and equity price risk. Objectives, policies and processes used to manage each of these risks are disclosed below.

Sensitivity disclosure analysis and assumptions

The National Gallery of Victoria’s sensitivity to market risk is determined based on the observed range of actual historical data for the preceding five-year period, with all variables other than the primary risk variable held constant. The National Gallery of Victoria’s fund managers cannot be expected to predict movements in market rates and prices. Sensitivity analyses shown are for illustrative purposes only. The following movements are ‘reasonably possible’ over the next 12 months:

- a movement of 100 basis points up and down (100 basis points up and down) in market interest rates (AUD) (refer table 7.1.5(b));
- proportional exchange rate movement of 15 per cent down (2021: 15 per cent, depreciation of AUD) and 15 per cent up (2020: 15 per cent, appreciation of AUD) against the USD, from the year end rate of 0.75 (2020: 0.68); and
- a movement of 15 per cent up and down (2020: 15 per cent) for the top ASX 200 index (refer table 7.1.7).

The tables that follow show the impact on the National Gallery of Victoria’s net result and equity for each category of financial instrument held by the National Gallery of Victoria at the end of the reporting period, if the above movements were to occur.

7.1.5 Interest rate risk

Fair value interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The interest rate risk on cash at bank and bank deposits at call is not considered material to the reported result. The National Gallery of Victoria holds diversified fixed interest investments within its Medium-Term Fund managed by the Victorian Funds Management Corporation under the oversight of the National Gallery of Victoria’s Investment Committee in accordance with the National Gallery of Victoria’s investment strategy.

The National Gallery of Victoria’s exposure to interest rate risks and the effective interest rates of financial assets and financial liabilities are as follows:

7.1.6 Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk arises from changes in the value of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies as exchange rates fluctuate. The National Gallery of Victoria makes purchases and sales in foreign currencies and reduces its risk by, wherever practical, preferring a certain outcome over an uncertain outcome and by minimising its exposure to exchange rate movements. Material foreign currency commitments, where the amount and timing of payment are known, are hedged through the Treasury Corporation of Victoria. The National Gallery of Victoria’s investment strategy also allows for investment in international equities (hedged and unhedged) and other overseas securities. This foreign currency risk is managed as part of the overall investment strategy which includes a variety of equity assets, inflation-sensitive assets, income assets and absolute-return assets.

7.1.7 Equity price risk

The National Gallery of Victoria is exposed to equity price risk through its investments in listed and unlisted shares and managed investment schemes. The National Gallery of Victoria holds units of trusts invested in Australian and International equities in the Endowed Fund managed by the Victorian Funds Management Corporation. The National Gallery of Victoria’s Investment Committee provides oversight of the management of these investments in accordance with the National Gallery of Victoria’s investment strategy. The National Gallery of Victoria recognises that market activity, particularly in equity markets, can give rise to significant volatility in the value of financial assets and this risk is accepted and managed within the objectives of the investment strategy.

Taking into account the current and future economic climate, the table below discloses the sensitivity of the National Gallery of Victoria’s financial assets to movements in the pricing of managed investments by shifts of +/- 15%.

7.2 Contingent assets and contingent liabilities

Contingent assets and contingent liabilities are not recognised in the balance sheet but are disclosed and, if quantifiable, are measured at nominal value.

Contingent assets and liabilities are presented inclusive of GST receivable or payable respectively.

Contingent assets

Contingent assets are possible assets that arise from past events, whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity.

These are classified as either quantifiable, where the potential economic benefit is known, or non-quantifiable.

As at 30 June 2021, the National Gallery of Victoria had been pledged donations which are expected to be honoured in the future although they are not legally enforceable. The National Gallery of Victoria had also been advised of several deceased estates from which it expects to benefit once probate is granted, any other claims on the estate are settled and net assets are realised and distributed to beneficiaries. The timing and value of these future economic flows are contingent on events beyond the National Gallery of Victoria’s control. Consistent with Note 2.3.1, the National Gallery of Victoria only recognises these transactions in the financial statements once they are actually received.

Contingent liabilities

Contingent liabilities are:

- possible obligations that arise from past events, whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity; or
- present obligations that arise from past events but are not recognised because:
 - it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligations; or
 - the amount of the obligations cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

Contingent liabilities are also classified as either quantifiable or non-quantifiable.

As at 30 June 2021, the National Gallery of Victoria had no contingent liabilities (2019/20 $0).

7.3 Fair value determination

Significant judgement: Fair value measurements of assets and liabilities

Fair value determination requires judgement and the use of assumptions. This section discloses the most significant assumptions used in determining fair values. Changes to assumptions could have a material impact on the results and financial position of the National Gallery of Victoria.

This section sets out information on how the National Gallery of Victoria determined fair value for financial reporting purposes. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The following assets and liabilities are carried at fair value:

- Investments in managed unit trust at fair value through net result;
- Land and buildings and plant and equipment; and
- Cultural assets.

In addition, the fair values of other assets and liabilities that are carried at amortised cost, also need to be determined for disclosure purposes.

The National Gallery of Victoria determines the policies and procedures for determining fair values for both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities as required.

Fair value hierarchy

In determining fair values a number of inputs are used. To increase consistency and comparability in the financial statements, these inputs are categorised into three levels, also known as the fair value hierarchy. The levels are as follows:

- Level 1—quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2—valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable; and
- Level 3—valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

The National Gallery of Victoria determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

The Valuer-General Victoria (VGV) is the National Gallery of Victoria’s independent valuation agency. VGV and Jones Lang LaSalle Valuations & Advisory (JLL) (for the State Collection), monitor changes in the fair value of each asset and liability through relevant data sources to determine whether revaluation is required.

How this section is structured

For those assets and liabilities for which fair values are determined, the following disclosures are provided:

- 7.3.1 Fair value determination of financial assets and liabilities
- 7.3.2 Fair value determination of non-current physical assets
- 7.3.3 Fair value determination of Cultural assets

7.3.1 Fair value determination of financial assets and liabilities

The fair values and net fair values of financial assets and liabilities are determined as follows:

- Level 1 – the fair value of financial instrument with standard terms and conditions and traded in active liquid markets are determined with reference to quoted market prices;
- Level 2 – the fair value is determined using inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the financial asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 – the fair value is determined in accordance with generally accepted pricing models based on discounted cash flow analysis using unobservable market inputs.

The National Gallery of Victoria currently holds a range of financial instruments that are recorded in the financial statements where the carrying amounts approximate fair value, either due to their short-term nature or with the expectation that they will be paid in full by the end of the 2019/20 reporting period.

These financial instruments include:

(i) There is no significant transfer between level 1 and level 2. (ii) The Diversified fixed interest assets are valued at fair value with reference to quoted (unadjusted) market prices from an active market. The National Gallery of Victoria categorises these instruments as level 1. The National Gallery of Victoria invests in managed funds which are not quoted in an active market and which may be subject to restrictions on redemptions. (iii) The National Gallery of Victoria considers the valuation techniques and inputs used in valuing these funds as part of its due diligence prior to investment, to ensure they are reasonable and appropriate and therefore the net asset value (NAV) of these funds may be used as an input into measuring their fair value. In measuring this fair value, the NAV of the funds is adjusted, as necessary, to reflect restrictions and redemptions, future commitments and other specific factors of the fund. In measuring fair value, consideration is also paid to any transactions in the shares of the fund. To the extent that the significant inputs are observable, the National Gallery of Victoria categorises these investments as level 2.

		Useful life of General plant & equipment	3 to 30 years	A significant increase or decrease in the useful life of the asset would result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value.

A full revaluation of property, plant and equipment, except for leasehold improvements and capital work-in-progress is undertaken every five years but may occur more frequently if material movements in fair value are identified, based upon the asset’s Government Purpose Classification. In between valuations and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Directions (FRDs) issued by the Assistant Treasurer, an assessment as to the change in the fair value for land and buildings is determined by reference to indices provided by the Valuer-General Victoria and for plant and equipment by review of the useful life of the plant and equipment and reasonableness of the depreciation rates used. Only a material change (greater than 10%) would trigger an adjustment to the fair value of property, plant and equipment.

Revaluation increments or decrements arise from differences between carrying amount and fair value. Revaluation increments are credited directly to the “Physical asset revaluation surplus”, except that, to the extent that an increment reverses a revaluation decrement in respect of that class of asset previously recognised as an expense in the net result, the increment is recognised immediately as revenue in the net result.

Revaluation decrements are recognised immediately as expenses in the net result, except that, to the extent that a credit balance exists in the “Physical asset revaluation surplus” in respect of the same class of assets, they are debited directly to the “Physical asset revaluation surplus”. Revaluation increases and decreases within a class of property, plant and equipment are offset against one another within that class but are not offset in respect of assets in different classes.

In between valuations and in accordance with the FRDs issued by the Assistant Treasurer, an assessment as to the change in the fair value is undertaken internally using internal expertise as well as other corroborating evidence such as land and building price indices issued the Valuer-General Victoria.

Specialised land

The market approach is used for specialised land, although it is adjusted for the community service obligation (CSO) to reflect the specialised nature of the land being valued. Under the market approach the land is compared to recent comparable sales. The CSO adjustment is a reflection of the valuer’s assessment of the impact of restrictions associated with the land to the extent that it is also equally applicable to market participants. This approach is in light of the highest and best use consideration required for fair value measurement and takes into account the use of the land that is physically possible, legally permissible, and financially feasible. As adjustments of CSO are considered as significant unobservable inputs, specialised land is classified as a Level 3 asset. As part of the 2021 valuation of specialised land, the Valuer General’s Office amended the existing CSO from 20% to 30%. This change was made as part of an overall objective of applying a consistent CSO concept to financial reporting valuations for all State reporting entities. The effect of this change has been to lower the value of specialised land by $15.514 million than what it otherwise would have been. The land is subject to a heritage overlay and the National Gallery of Victoria is included on the Victorian Heritage Register under the Heritage Act 1995. An independent valuation of the National Gallery of Victoria’s land was performed by Valuer-General Victoria as at 30 June 2021.

Heritage Building – Buildings, Building plant and Building fit-out

The depreciated reproduction cost is the valuation method used for the National Gallery of Victoria’s building, adjusting for the associated depreciation. Reproduction cost represents the cost of reconstruction including professional fees and escalation however excludes the cost of demolition and removal of debris of the existing building. It also assumes destruction occurs on the date for financial reporting. Depreciated reproduction costs reflect reproduction cost after applying depreciation on a useful life basis. The current use is considered the highest and best use. As depreciation adjustments are considered as significant, unobservable inputs in nature, the building is classified as a Level 3 fair value measurement. An independent valuation of the National Gallery of Victoria’s building was performed by Napier & Blakeley Pty Ltd as at 30 June 2021 on behalf of the Valuer-General Victoria.

Leasehold improvements

Leasehold improvements are held at fair value which has been determined as depreciated replacement cost and are depreciated over the period of the lease or estimated useful life of the asset, whichever is shorter.

There were no changes in the valuation techniques throughout the year to 30 June 2021. The current use is considered the highest and best use.

General plant and equipment

General plant and equipment is held at fair value which has been determined using the depreciated replacement cost method. There were no changes in the valuation techniques throughout the year to 30 June 2021. The current use is considered the highest and best use.

Fair value measurement hierarchy for assets as at 30 June 2021 (and 30 June 2020)

	Valuation Technique	Significant Unobservable Inputs
State Collection of works of art	A statistical sampling valuation approach was used for works of art valued at less than $500,000.	Statistical calculation based on extrapolation of sample valuations.
	The market approach was used for works of art valued at $500,000 or more	The use of prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable (i.e. similar) assets.
Shaw Research Library collection	Professional judgement used for the valuation of books valued at less than $1,000.	Valuation of items using professional judgement.

The State Collection of Works of Art (the Collection) is required to be formally valued every 5 years, under Financial Reporting Direction 103I. An independent valuation of the Collection was undertaken in 2021 by Jones Lang LaSalle Valuations & Advisory Proprietary Limited (JLL). The valuation scope, methodology adopted, and the calculations applied to the Collection’s valuation were in accordance with AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement, AASB 116 Property, plant and equipment and FRD 103I Non-Financial Physical Assets.

In between valuations and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Directions (FRDs) issued by the Assistant Treasurer, JLL are engaged to perform a fair value assessment to the change in the fair value for the State Collection since the previous independent valuation. Only a material change (greater than 10%) could trigger an adjustment to the fair value of the Cultural assets.

In 2020–2021 JLL factored the impact of COVID-19 in terms of foreign exchange rates and the lead time to sell art in the current market.

Revaluation increments or decrements arise from differences between carrying amount and fair value. Revaluation increments are credited directly to the “Cultural assets revaluation surplus”, except that, to the extent that an increment reverses a revaluation decrement previously recognised as an expense in the net result, the increment is recognised immediately as revenue in the net result.

There are approximately 73,000 works of art in the Collection. For the purposes of the valuation, these works of art are further broken down to 82,294 items. For the year ended 30 June 2021, the Collection was valued using the market approach. Works of art with a value over $500,000 (Category 1) were valued on an individual basis. All other works of art (Category 2) were valued using a statistical sampling approach. For the 2021 valuation there were 778 Category 1 works of art. The remainder of the Collection (Category 2) were valued on a multistage sampling basis. The multistage sampling involved subdividing the Category 2 works of art into smaller, concentrated representative strata for valuation purposes and taking a sample from each sub-collection. The stratification reduces the variability of the sampling outcome. Overall, there were 2,366 works of art valued across these 18 sub-collections.

The market approach was applied as the valuation technique for valuing the Collection. Consideration was given to the prices for transactions of similar assets that have occurred recently in the market. In the event that there are few, recent transactions, prices of similar assets offered for sale may be considered where the information is clearly relevant. This price information may be adjusted for known transactional differences or physical characteristics between the similar and other asset. All works of art were valued according to highest and best use and the most advantageous market. The value of the Collection could change in future financial years as a result of changes in the significant and unobservable valuation inputs that have been adopted to determine the fair value.

Professional judgement was required to establish fair value during the valuation process. This involved taking into account the artist, art work, condition, provenance and market place. In applying professional judgment, the expert valuers had to evaluate their valuations for reasonableness against market and academic research as well as other transactions of artwork.

The process of extrapolating the valuation results from each of the Category 2 works of art samples, across the entire sub-collection populations, in order to determine the population values is considered to be a significant unobservable input to the valuation.

This is demonstrated through the relative standard error (RSE) calculated from the process. RSE represents the variability due to sampling and random adjustment.

The overall fair value valuation as at 30 June 2021 was calculated to be $4,171,890,088 with a relative standard error (RSE) of 1.62%. A 95% confidence interval for this value was given as $4,104,305,468 to $4,239,474,707. The revaluation increment for the State Collection of works of art was $515,826,454.

Revaluation decrements are recognised immediately as expenses in the net result, except that, to the extent that a credit balance exists in the “Cultural assets revaluation surplus”, they are debited directly to the “Cultural assets revaluation surplus”.

8.8 Subsequent events

The National Gallery of Victoria closed again to the Public on 16 July 2021 as a result of the COVID-19 lockdown and re-opened with capacity restrictions on 28 July and went into lockdown again on 6 August.

The impact of COVID-19 on the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities of the National Gallery of Victoria as at 30 June 2021 is reflected in the accounts and is not considered to be material. This is based on the economy emerging relatively unscathed over the short to medium term.

The Council of Trustees, Executive Management Team and senior staff have been actively reviewing the impact of COVID-19 on all aspects of the business including financial arrangements. This has included high level cashflow forecast discussions and reporting to the Department of Treasury and Finance through and with assistance from the Department of Jobs, Precincts and Regions and Creative Victoria. The purpose of this cashflow reporting has been to understand the National Gallery of Victoria’s forecast financial commitments.

8.9 Australian Accounting Standards issued that are not yet effective

- Certain new and revised accounting standards have been issued but are not effective for the 2020-21 reporting period. These accounting standards have not been applied to the National Gallery of Victoria’s Financial Statements. The National Gallery of Victoria is reviewing its existing policies and assessing the potential implications of these accounting standards which includes:
- AASB 2020-1 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current

This Standard amends AASB 101 to clarify requirements for the presentation of liabilities in the statement of financial position as current or non-current. It initially applied to annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2022 with earlier application permitted however the AASB has recently issued AASB 2020-1 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current – Deferral of Effective Date to defer the application by one year to periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023. The National Gallery of Victoria will not early adopt the Standard.

The National Gallery of Victoria is in the process of analysing the impacts of this Standard. However, it is not anticipated to have a material impact.

- Several other amending standards and AASB interpretations have been issued that apply to future reporting periods, but are considered to have limited impact on the National Gallery of Victoria’s reporting.
- AASB 17 Insurance Contracts.
 - AASB 1060 General Purpose Financial Statements – Simplified Disclosures for For-Profit and Not-for-Profit Tier 2 Entities (Appendix C).
 - AASB 2020-2 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Removal of Special Purpose Financial Statements for Certain For-Profit Private Sector Entities.
 - AASB 2020-3 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Annual Improvements 2018-2020 and Other Amendments.
 - AASB 2020-7 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Covid-19-Rent Related Concessions: Tier 2 Disclosures.
 - AASB 2020-8 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards - Interest Rate Benchmark Reform – Phase 2.
 - AASB 2020-9 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Tier 2 Disclosures: Interest Rate Benchmark Reform (Phase 2) and Other Amendments.

8.10 Glossary of technical terms

Capital asset charge
The capital asset charge represents the opportunity cost of capital invested in the non-current physical assets used in the provision of outputs.

Commitments
Commitments include those operating, capital and other outsourcing commitments arising from non-cancellable contractual or statutory sources.

Comprehensive result
The comprehensive result is the net result of all items of income and expense recognised for the period. It is the aggregate of operating result and other comprehensive income.

Depreciation
Depreciation is an expense that arises from the consumption through wear or time of a produced physical or intangible asset. This expense is classified as a ‘transaction’ and so reduces the ‘net result from transactions’.

Effective interest method
Effective interest method is the method used to calculate the amortised cost of a financial asset and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset or, where appropriate, a shorter period.

Employee Benefits expenses
Employee expenses include all costs related to employment including wages and salaries, fringe benefits tax, leave entitlements, redundancy payments and defined contribution superannuation plans.

Ex gratia expenses
Ex gratia expenses mean the voluntary payment of money or other non-monetary benefit (e.g. a write-off) that is not made either to acquire goods, services or other benefits for the entity or to meet a legal liability, or to settle or resolve a possible legal liability or claim against the entity.

Expected credit losses
Expected credit losses are the present value of the weighted average of credit losses with respective risks of default occurring as the weights.

- Financial asset
A financial asset is any asset that is:
- cash;
 - an equity instrument of another entity;
 - a contractual right:
 - to receive cash or another financial asset from another entity; or
 - to exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially favourable to the entity; or
 - a contract that will or may be settled in the entity’s own equity instruments and is:
 - a non-derivative for which the entity is or may be obliged to receive a variable number of the entity’s own equity instruments; or
 - a derivative that will or may be settled other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the entity’s own equity instruments.

Financial instrument
A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. Financial assets or liabilities that are not contractual (such as statutory receivables or payables that arise as a result of statutory requirements imposed by governments) are not financial instruments.

- Financial liability
A financial liability is any liability that is:
- a contractual obligation:
 - to deliver cash or another financial asset to another entity; or
 - to exchange financial assets or financial liabilities with another entity under conditions that are potentially unfavourable to the entity; or

- a contract that will or may be settled in the entity’s own equity instruments and is:
 - a non-derivative for which the entity is or may be obliged to deliver a variable number of the entity’s own equity instruments; or
 - a derivative that will or may be settled other than by the exchange of a fixed amount of cash or another financial asset for a fixed number of the entity’s own equity instruments. For this purpose, the entity’s own equity instruments do not include instruments that are themselves contracts for the future receipt or delivery of the entity’s own equity instruments.

Financial statements

Financial statements comprise:

- a balance sheet as at the end of the period;
- a comprehensive operating statement for the period;
- a statement of changes in equity for the period;
- a cash flow statement for the period; and
- Notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Grants and other transfers

Transactions in which one entity provides goods, services, assets (or extinguishes a liability) or labour to another entity without receiving approximately equal value in return. Grants can either be operating or capital in nature. While grants by governments may result in the provision of some goods or services to the transferor, they do not give the transferor a claim to receive directly benefits of approximately equal value. Receipt and sacrifice of approximately equal value may occur, but only by coincidence. For example, governments are not obliged to provide commensurate benefits, in the form of goods or services, to particular taxpayers in return for their taxes.

Grants can be paid as general purpose grants which refer to grants that are not subject to conditions regarding their use. Alternatively, they may be paid as specific purpose grants which are paid for a particular purpose and/or have conditions attached regarding their use.

Interest expense

Interest expense represents costs incurred in connection with borrowings. It includes interest on advances, loans, overdrafts, bonds and bills, deposits, interest components of lease repayments, service concession financial liabilities and amortisation of discounts or premiums in relation to borrowings.

Leases

Leases are rights conveyed in a contract, or part of a contract, the right to use an asset (the underlying asset) for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Other economic flows included in net result

Other economic flows included in net result are changes in the volume or value of an asset or liability that do not result from transactions. It includes:

- gains and losses from disposals, revaluations and impairments of non-financial physical assets; and
- fair value changes of financial instruments.

Other economic flows – other comprehensive income

Other economic flows – other comprehensive income comprises items (including reclassification adjustments) that are not recognised in net result as required or permitted by other Australian Accounting Standards.

The components of other economic flows – other comprehensive income include:

- changes in physical asset revaluation surplus; and
- gains and losses on remeasuring financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.

Net result

Net result is a measure of financial performance of the operations for the period. It is the net result of items of income, gains and expenses (including losses) recognised for the period, excluding those that are classified as ‘other economic flows – other comprehensive income’.

Net result from transactions/net operating balance

Net result from transactions or net operating balance is a key fiscal aggregate and is income from transactions minus expenses from transactions. It is a summary measure of the ongoing sustainability of operations. It excludes gains and losses resulting from changes in price levels and other changes in the volume of assets. It is the component of the change in net worth that is due to transactions and can be attributed directly to government policies.

Net worth

Net worth is assets less liabilities, which is an economic measure of wealth.

Non-financial assets

Non-financial assets are all assets that are not financial assets. It includes inventories, land, buildings, infrastructure, road networks, land under roads, plant and equipment, cultural and heritage assets, intangibles and biological assets such as commercial forests.

Operating result

Operating result is a measure of financial performance of the operations for the period. It is the net result of items of revenue, gains and expenses (including losses) recognised for the period, excluding those that are classified as ‘other non-owner movements in equity’. Refer also to ‘net result’.

Payables

Includes short and long-term trade debt and accounts payable, grants and interest payable.

Receivables

Receivables include amounts owing from government through appropriation receivable, short and long-term trade credit and accounts receivable, accrued investment income, grants, taxes and interest receivable.

Sales of goods and services

Refers to revenue from the direct provision of goods and services and includes exhibition and program admissions, retail sales, memberships and sponsorships.

Supplies and services

Supplies and services represents the costs of running the National Gallery of Victoria excluding employee benefits, depreciation of property, plant and equipment, use of premises provided free of charge and the capital asset charge. These costs include costs of facilities, information services, cost of publications and merchandise sold, exhibitions, education and public programs.

Transactions

Transactions are those economic flows that are considered to arise as a result of policy decisions, usually an interaction between two entities by mutual agreement. They also include flows within an entity such as depreciation where the owner is simultaneously acting as the owner of the depreciating asset and as the consumer of the service provided by the asset. Taxation is regarded as mutually agreed interactions between the government and taxpayers. Transactions can be in kind (e.g. assets provided/given free of charge or for nominal consideration) or where the final consideration is cash. In simple terms, transactions arise from the policy decisions of the government.

8.11 Style conventions

Figures in the tables and in the text have been rounded. Discrepancies in tables between totals and sums of components reflect rounding. Percentage variations in all tables are based on the underlying unrounded amounts.

The notation used in the tables is as follows:

- .. zero, or rounded to zero
- (xxx.x) negative numbers
- 200x year
- 200x-0x year period

The financial statements and notes are presented based on the illustration for a government department in the 2020-21 Model Report for Victorian Government Departments. The presentation of other disclosures is generally consistent with the other disclosures made in earlier publications of the National Gallery of Victoria’s annual reports.

Notes:

In reporting employee numbers the following assumptions have been applied:

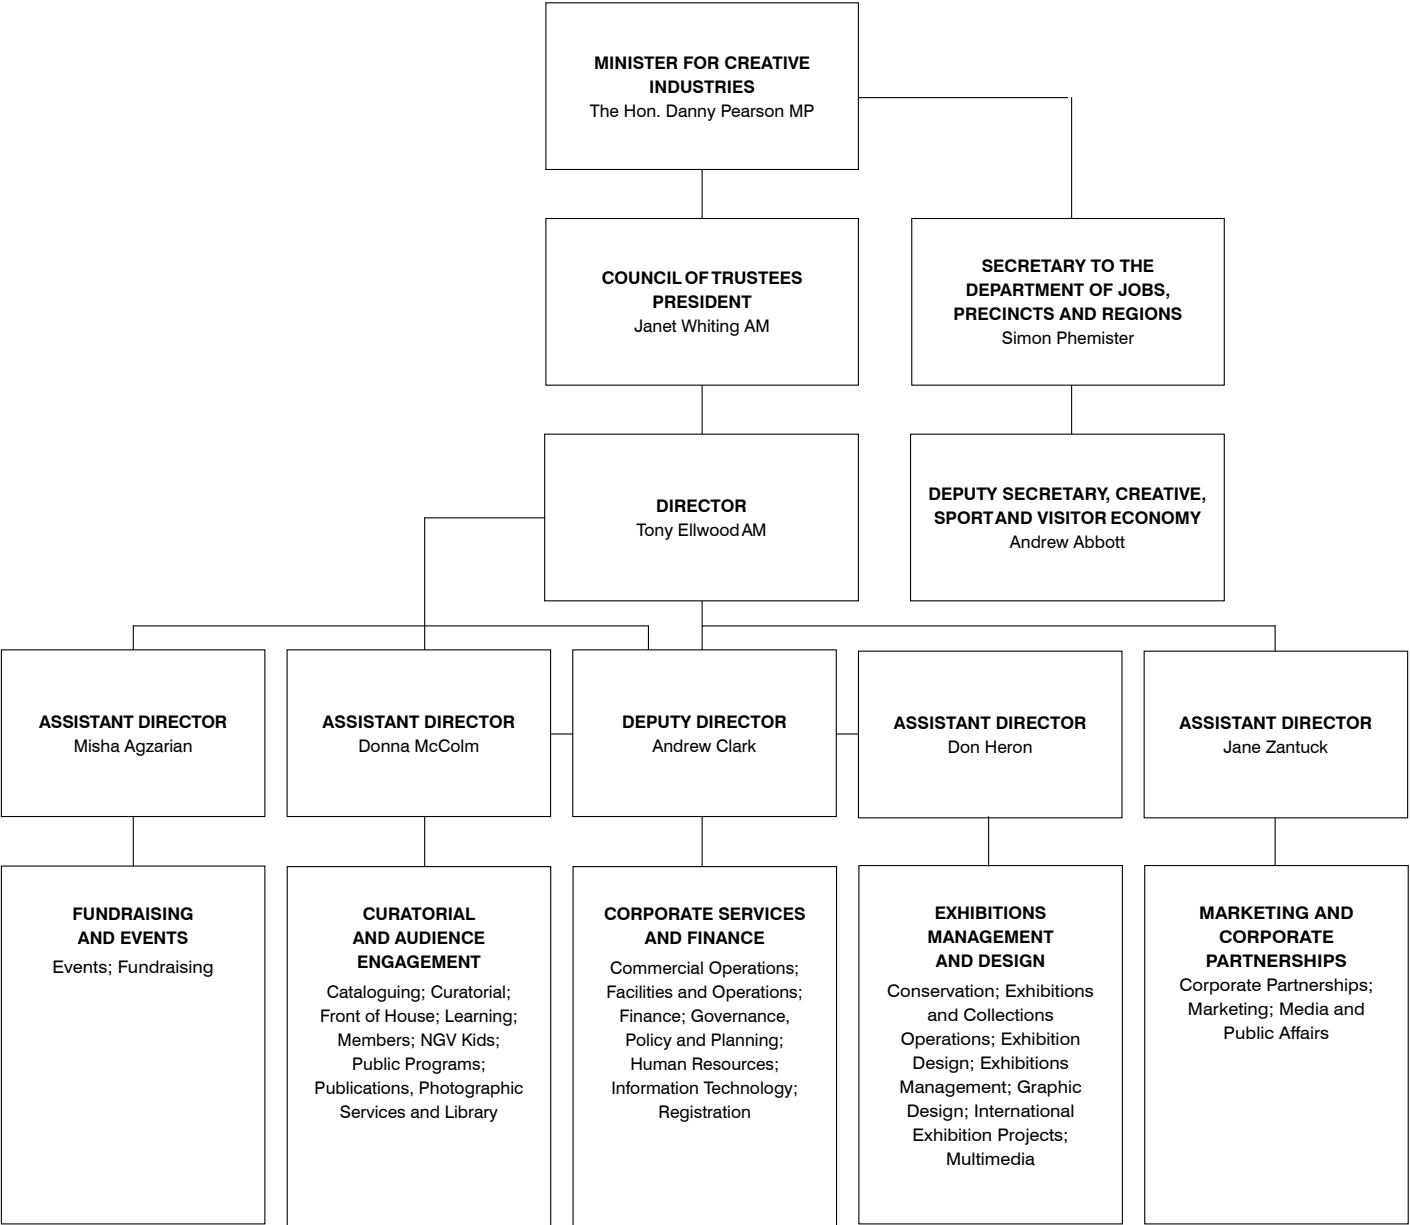

- Casual FTE is based on the hours worked in the last pay period of the financial year.
- 'Ongoing employees' includes people engaged on an open-ended contract of employment who were active in the last pay period of the financial year.

Occupational Health and Safety (OHS)
The NGV’s OHS Framework is managed through an OHS Committee, which meets regularly. Outcomes against key performance indicators under the NGV’s OHS framework are monitored throughout the year, with annual results provided in the table below.

OTHER CORPORATE REPORTS

COMPLIANCE WITH THE DISABILITY ACT 2006

The Disability Act 2006 reaffirms and strengthens the rights of people with a disability, and recognises that this requires support across the government sector and within the community. The NGV’s Disability Action Plan (DAP) 2021–24 supports the Gallery’s commitment to provide inclusive and accessible exhibitions, programs and services to enable broad participation.

The following programs were delivered in 2020/21:

- Relaxed Sessions provided opportunities for people with a disability, autism or sensory sensitivities to have a quieter NGV experience with out-of-hours access to exhibitions, including Moja Moja Life: Misaki Kawai for Kids, the NGV Kids Summer Festival and NGV Triennial.
- As part of the NGV Triennial, a suite of audio descriptions for works of art on display were prepared and made available for free access on the NGV website.
- New resources for the Deaf or hard of hearing included a video resource featuring Deaf artist Luke King presenting an introduction in Auslan about some of his favourite works in the NGV Collection; a student art-making video workshop in Auslan for NGV Triennial inspired by the work In the middle but in the corner of 176th place, 2019, by artist Diamond Stingily; and new captioned videos, including artist and curator talks, art-making workshops and other public programs, featured on the NGV website.
- New school programs developed to support inclusion and access comprised two virtual excursions for students, Art Moves and Movement and Moments, and a teacher professional learning program Towards Foundation: Learning with Art for Students Working at Levels A–D as an ‘on request’ program for teachers of students with special needs. NGV Educators also presented a webinar on art and design resources for people with autism and other learning needs as part of the series Inclusive STEM education for students with diverse learning needs, organised by the Design and Technology Teachers Association.
- The Krystyna Campbell-Pretty AM and Family School Support Program provided funding to support the participation of three special schools in virtual programs for NGV Triennial.
- The Your NGV Arts Access Program for students, children and families, generously funded by the Packer Family and Crown Resorts Foundations, provided free online programs for fifteen special schools.
- An online program tailored to the needs of participants was provided for Yellow Ladybugs, an organisation that supports autistic girls and women.
- In 2020, the NGV Guides provided a series of interactive online art experiences, including Sharing Connections for people living with dementia and their family or carers.
- Two new programs, Seniors Tea with NGV, commenced in 2020, and Gallery Visits You online, launched in 2021, provided access to the NGV Collection and exhibitions for those who were unable to physically visit the Gallery, including those living in residential care.

Accessible venue, exhibitions and displays

The NGV continued to provide a range of seating options in public spaces and within exhibitions. Wheelchairs and a motorised scooter are available for free hire.

Large-print artwork labels were available onsite and online for free download from the NGV website.

Sensory maps showing areas of sensory stimuli and places to rest were produced for major exhibitions including children’s exhibitions and Top Arts 2021. Visual-style social scripts assisted autistic children and were available for free download from the website or could be collected onsite. Access kits were produced for free hire.

Communication and accessible information and technology

The NGV website is periodically revised to improve the communication and access of information about events, tools and initiatives available to visitors with access requirements. The NGV website is designed, built and maintained in keeping with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG). This includes keyboard navigability, clear colour contrast between text and backgrounds, heading structures, labelled forms, aria labels, descriptive anchor links and zoomable text. In doing so, the NGV website aims to meet the needs of all users equally.

The NGV website assists visitors to pre-plan their visit and navigate the NGV Collection, programs and exhibition spaces in advance. For visitors who cannot visit the Gallery, we offer virtual tours of exhibitions online.

The NGV has prioritised broader captioning of video content shared across social media, website and digital channels to enhance accessibility and engagement with audiences. During the Gallery’s temporary closure due to COVID-19, a video in Auslan demonstrated the breadth of digital content available, including captioned videos, resources for children, teens and students.

Commonly recognised access symbols, including Auslan interpretation, have been incorporated into the NGV’s website and promotional collateral, to highlight accessibility of relevant programs and events.

Targeted social media activity continues to promote the NGV’s diverse offering and engage individuals and organisations that represent people with a disability. World Autism Day was promoted through NGV’s social media and included information on available Access resources and events.

Recruitment

The NGV is an Equal Opportunity Employer that values diversity in the workplace and is committed to making reasonable adjustments to provide a positive, barrier-free recruitment process and supportive workplace.

Carer’s recognition

NGV staff can access personal carer’s leave and negotiate flexible working hours or part-time employment to accommodate caring responsibilities. The Gallery continues to recognise the Companion Card, which provides cardholders with a second ticket to exhibitions and programs free of charge. Carer Card holders receive a concession discount.

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) allows the public a right of access to documents held by the NGV. The purpose of the Act is to extend as far as possible the right of the community to access information held by government departments, local councils, ministers and other bodies subject to the Act.

An applicant has a right to apply for access to documents held by the NGV. This comprises documents both created by the NGV or supplied to the NGV by an external organisation or individual, and may also include maps, films, microfiche, photographs, computer printouts, computer discs, tape recordings and videotapes. Information about the type of material produced by the NGV is available on the NGV website under its Part II Information Statement.

The Act allows the NGV to refuse access, either fully or partially, to certain documents or information. Examples of documents that may not be accessed include: cabinet documents; some internal working documents; law enforcement documents; documents covered by legal professional privilege, such as legal advice; personal information about other people; and information provided to the NGV in-confidence.

The processing time for requests is 30 days. In some cases, this time may be extended.

If an applicant is not satisfied by a decision made by the NGV under section 49A of the Act, they have the right to seek a review by the Office of the Victorian Information Commissioner (OVIC) within 28 days of receiving a decision letter.

Making a request

FOI requests can be lodged through a written request to the NGV’s Freedom of Information Officer, as detailed in section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 1982. An application fee of $29.60 applies. Access charges may also be payable. These normally apply if the document pool is large, and the search for material is time consuming.

When making an FOI request, applicants should ensure requests are in writing, and clearly identify what types of material/documents are being sought.

Requests for documents in the possession of the NGV should be addressed to:
Freedom of Information Officer
National Gallery of Victoria
PO Box 7259
Melbourne VIC 3004
or via email to foi@ngv.vic.gov.au

FOI statistics/timeliness

The NGV did not receive any applications during 2020/21.

Further information

Further information regarding the operation and scope of FOI can be obtained from the Act; regulations made under the Act; and ovic.vic.gov.au.

PUBLIC INTEREST DISCLOSURES

The Public Interest Disclosures Act 2012 encourages and assists people in making disclosures of improper conduct by public officers and public bodies. The Act provides protection to people who make disclosures in accordance with the Act and establishes a system for the matters disclosed to be investigated and rectifying action to be taken.

The NGV does not tolerate improper conduct by employees, nor the taking of reprisals against those who come forward to disclose such conduct. It is committed to ensuring transparency and accountability in its administrative and management practices and supports the making of disclosures that reveal corrupt conduct, conduct involving substantial mismanagement of public resources, or conduct involving a substantial risk to public health and safety or the environment.

The NGV has procedures to protect people who make such disclosures from any detrimental action in reprisal for making the disclosure. These procedures are available to the public on the NGV’s website www.ngv.vic.gov.au/about/reports-and-documents/protected-disclosure-procedures.

Reporting procedures

The NGV is not a public body to which disclosures may be made. Disclosures of improper conduct or detrimental action relating to the NGV should be made to the Independent Broad-based Anti-corruption Commission (IBAC). Further information about making disclosures to the IBAC can be found at www.ibac.vic.gov.au.

Disclosures can also be made to the Victorian Ombudsman (www.ombudsman.vic.gov.au) and the Victorian Inspectorate (www.vicinspectorate.vic.gov.au).

CHILD SAFETY STANDARDS

In line with the Child Safe Standards under the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2015, the National Gallery of Victoria is committed to upholding the Victorian Child Safe Standards to the best of its abilities and resources.

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

1. Policy Context

The NGV has a strong track record of environmentally sustainable operations. Contributing to Victoria’s environmental sustainability is consistent with the Gallery’s objectives to provide broad access to the NGV Collection and conserve it for future generations.

Through the NGV Environmental Sustainability Policy, the Gallery commits to:

- demonstrating excellence in sustainable management of resources and reduction of its carbon footprint
- seeking effective and efficient solutions to improve water, energy and waste outcomes
- considering initiatives to reduce the Gallery’s impact on the environment
- working towards key performance indicators set out in the Gallery’s Environmental Plan
- working with partner agencies, landlords and suppliers to minimise the Gallery’s environmental footprint.

2. Implementation

As part of the Victorian Government’s Greener Government Buildings initiative, the NGV Energy Performance Contract (EPC) was commenced in 2019 and completed in March 2021. The project is now in a monitoring and verification phase with monthly reports providing feedback on energy savings. There are two types of EPC initiatives:

Energy Generation Initiatives:

- 360 solar panels on the NGV International roof.

Energy Saving Initiatives:

- LED light fittings in both NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia
- valves replacement to convert air and water supply to NGV International from continual to on-demand
- upgrade of air-conditioning filters at NGV International, from traditional carbon filters to ionic air electronic filters
- environmental control optimisation within gallery spaces.

During 2020/21, the NGV also implemented and delivered on principles of the Environmental Sustainability Policy through the following key operational activities and initiatives:

- plant, equipment and system improvements to increase energy performance, especially during high-usage times such as over summer peak periods
- implementing energy saving initiatives while the NGV was closed to the public, from July to December 2020, February 2021, and May to June 2021
- continuation of a revised air-conditioning program at NGV International, which takes advantage of identified thermal efficiencies
- continuation of the recycling program in administrative and back-of-house areas
- continued use of 100 per cent recycled office paper and other sustainable office products
- continued harvesting of rainwater for use in the NGV International’s moats
- collection, tracking and reporting of environmental data.

3. Outcomes

It should be noted that the NGV was closed to the public for 196 days of the 2020/21 financial year due to the COVID-19 pandemic, which had an impact on the Gallery’s environmental sustainability performance.

Energy consumption and greenhouse gas emissions

a) Total energy usage segmented by primary source

Stationary Energy (GJ)
2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
85,284	81,732	22,303

During the 2020/21 period there was a decrease in total energy consumption required to operate the NGV buildings, primarily due to reduced energy usage while the NGV buildings were temporarily closed to the public, but this was also a reflection of ongoing energy-saving initiatives.

b) Total greenhouse gas emissions

Stationary Energy ¹² (tonnes CO2)
2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
17,918	14,362	9,817

In 2020/21, the NGV continued to decrease total greenhouse emissions due to energy-saving initiatives and reduced energy consumption, primarily due to reduced energy usage while the NGV buildings were temporarily closed to the public, but this was also a reflection of ongoing energy-saving initiatives.

c) Normalised energy usage and greenhouse gas emissions

	2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
GJ/visitor	0.03	0.04	0.03
tCO ₂ e /visitor	0.01	0.01	0.01
GJ/operating hour	6.2	6.0	1.6
tCO ₂ e /operating hour	1.3	1.1	0.7

2020/21 energy usage and greenhouse gas emissions continue to decrease per operating hour, primarily due to reduced energy usage while the NGV buildings were temporarily closed to the public, but also due to Arts Centre Melbourne plant upgrades, and EPC energy-saving initiatives.

Water consumption

The Gallery decreased its total water consumption in 2020/21 by 58 per cent compared with the previous year, primarily due to reduced energy usage while the NGV buildings were temporarily closed to the public, but also due to Arts Centre Melbourne plant upgrades, and EPC energy-saving initiatives.

a) Total units of metered water consumed, including air-conditioning cooling towers (kL)

2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
49,149	32,563	13,657

b) Normalised water usage

	2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
kL/ visitor	0.02	0.02	0.02
kL/ operating hour	3.6	2.4	1

Waste production

In 2020/21, the NGV reduced its total waste production by 6 per cent compared with the previous year, reflecting continued waste reduction initiatives and the NGV temporary building closure. The decreased recycling rate reflects the ongoing struggles faced by the Victorian recycling industry and increased re-use of materials for Gallery activities.

a) Total units of waste disposed of by destination (kg per annum)

	2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
Landfill kg	145,408	150,943	205,720
Recycled kg	450,135	218,320	142,100
Total kg	595,543	369,263	347,820

b) Normalised waste disposal (kg)

	2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
Landfill kg/visitor	0.05	0.07	0.28
Recycled kg/visitor	0.2	0.1	0.2
Landfill kg/operating hour	10.7	11.1	15.1
Recycled kg/operating hour	33.0	16.0	10.4

c) Recycling rate: 40.85%

Travel

The NGV has maintained low carbon emissions, largely due to the NGV being closed to staff for extended periods during the year in response to public health advice in place at the time, resulting in lower use of taxis and NGV vehicles.

a) Carbon emissions from NGV vehicle use (CO2)

	2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
tCO ₂ e	9.5	10.2	4.1

b) Carbon emissions from NGV staff use of taxis (CO2)

	2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
tCO ₂ e	11.1	9.5	0.4

Normalising factors

The NGV’s environmental impacts are not primarily office based. The chart below shows the range of normalising factors that are relevant to the Gallery’s functions and activities.

Normalising factor	NGV International	NGV Australia
2020/21 average number of full-time building occupants (i)	120	20

NUMBER OF VISITORS
2020/21 (ii)	646,347	126,758
2019/20	1,671,593	397,591
2018/19	2,319,451	617,029
2017/18	2,678,166	631,230
2020/21 number of air-conditioning operating hours (ii)	4,880	8,760

- i. The NGV was closed to the public from 9 July to 18 December 2020, 13 to 17 February 2021, and 28 May to 25 June 2021, reducing the average number of full-time building occupants.
- ii. The NGV was closed to the public from 9 July to 18 December 2020, 13 to 17 February 2021, and 28 May to 25 June 2021.
- iii. Air-conditioning system shuts down overnight (7pm–7am) except when there is a function held in the building outside of these hours.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE BUILDING ACT 1993

During 2020/21 the NGV-owned and controlled premises at 180 St Kilda Road, Melbourne, 3004 (NGV International) complied with all provisions of the Building Act 1993 and all relevant provisions of the National Construction Code. As at 19 June 2021, an independent review confirmed that essential safety measures were compliant with the requirements of the occupancy permit for these premises.

During 2020/21 the NGV completed several projects at NGV International as part of the Gallery’s asset renewal and capital works program. All building works of more than $50,000 in value were subject to certification of plans, mandatory inspections of the works, issue of building permits and certificates of final inspection.

In 2020/21 the NGV was issued with nine building permits for exhibition construction across NGV International and The Ian Potter Centre: NGV Australia. For each permit, a registered building surveyor provided the appropriate inspection certificate at the completion of the projects. No changes to the occupancy levels of either building were required as a result of these construction projects. No emergency orders or building orders were issued in relation to buildings owned and operated by the NGV.

The NGV regularly (at least annually) conducts condition inspections of all buildings and equipment to ensure service requirements are being met. Where maintenance or renewal work is required, this is included in future maintenance and capital plans, and completed taking into account assessments of risk and availability of financial and other resources.

No building was required to be brought into conformity during the year.

COMPETITIVE NEUTRALITY POLICY

Competitive neutrality aims to eliminate distortions of resource allocation arising from the public ownership of entities engaged in significant business activities. Government business should not enjoy a net competitive advantage resulting from their public sector ownership. Where such advantages are found to exist, certain measures are required to be implemented in order to achieve competitive neutrality.

The NGV is committed to the application of competitive neutrality principles as set out in the Victorian Competitive Neutrality Policy. However, the Gallery does not currently carry out any significant business activities that would fall within the scope of the Competitive Neutrality Policy.

IMPLEMENTATION OF LOCAL JOBS FIRST POLICY

The Local Jobs First Policy brings together the Victorian Industry Participation Policy (VIPP) and Major Project Skills Guarantee (MPSG) Policy, which were previously administered separately. Application of the policy is mandatory for all Victorian Government departments and agencies, including the NGV.

The Local Jobs First Policy applies to all projects valued at $3 million or more in statewide and metropolitan Melbourne projects, or valued at $1 million or more for regional Victoria projects.

During 2020/21 the NGV undertook requests for tender procurement processes for the following applicable project:

- IT Managed Services contract, valued at $2,971,343 over a period of three years.

This procurement was carried out in line with the Industry Capability Network (ICN) process and the proposal Local Industry Development Plans (LIDPs) were assessed by the VIPP team as part of the evaluation process.

The anticipated outcomes from the implementation of the Local Jobs First policy in relation to this contract include:

- An average of 83 per cent of local content.
- A total of 0.7 jobs will be committed, including the retention of one job.

IMPLEMENTATION OF SOCIAL PROCUREMENT FRAMEWORK

The Victorian Government’s Social Procurement Framework (SPF) is a whole-of-government framework outlining approach-es to social procurement, the implementation of which aims to achieve both social and sustainable outcomes to benefit Victorians.

The NGV has developed its Social Procurement Strategy in line with this framework and is committed to the following objectives:

- providing opportunities for disadvantaged Victorians.

The NGV did not undertake any procurements relevant to the application of its Social Procurement Strategy in 2020/21.
